Video Program overview

The Interchange Video Program is designed to complement the Student’s Books. Each video provides further practice related to the topics, language, and vocabulary introduced in the corresponding unit of the Student’s Book.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Video
The sixteen videos in each level’s video program complement Units 1 through 16 of the corresponding Student’s Book. There are a variety of genres: dramatized stories, documentaries, interviews, profiles, and travelogues.

Video Resource Book
The Video Resource Book contains the following:
- engaging photocopiable worksheets for students
- detailed teaching notes for teachers
- answer keys for the student worksheets
- complete video transcripts

TEACHING A TYPICAL VIDEO SEQUENCE

The worksheets and teaching notes for each video are organized into four sections: Preview, Watch the video, Follow-up, and Language close-up. The unit-by-unit teaching notes in the Video Resource Book give detailed suggestions for teaching each unit.

Preview
The Preview activities build on each other to provide students with relevant background information and key vocabulary that will assist them in better understanding the video.

Watch the video
The carefully sequenced Watch the video activities first help students focus on gist and then guide them in identifying important details and language. These tasks also prepare them for Follow-up speaking activities.

Follow-up
The Follow-up speaking activities encourage students to extend and personalize information by voicing their opinions or carrying out communicative tasks.

Language close-up
Students finish with the Language close-up, examining and practicing the particular language structures and functions presented in the video.
Introduction to the CEFR

Introduction to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

The overall aim of the Council of Europe’s Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) is to provide objective criteria for describing and assessing language proficiency in an internationally comparable manner. The Council of Europe’s work on the definition of appropriate learning objectives for adult language learners dates back to the ’70s. The influential Threshold series (J. A. van Ek and J. L. M. Trim, Cambridge University Press, 1991) provides a detailed description in functional, notional, grammatical, and sociocultural terms, of what a language user needs to be able to do in order to communicate effectively in the sort of situations commonly encountered in everyday life. Three levels of proficiency are identified, called Waystage, Threshold, and Vantage (roughly corresponding to Elementary, Intermediate, and Upper Intermediate).

The Threshold series was followed in 2001 by the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference, which describes six levels of communicative ability in terms of competences or “can do” statements: A1 (Breakthrough), A2 (Waystage), B1 (Threshold), B2 (Vantage), C1 (Effective Operational Proficiency), and C2 (Mastery). Based on the CEFR descriptors, the Council of Europe also developed the European Language Portfolio, a document that enables learners to assess their language ability and to keep an internationally recognized record of their language learning experience.

Classroom management

Error correction
- During controlled practice accuracy activities, correct students’ wrong use of the target language right away, either by correcting the error yourself or, whenever possible, by having the student identify and/or correct the error. This way, the focus is on accuracy, and students can internalize the correct forms, meaning, and use of the language.
- During oral fluency activities, go around the room and take notes on errors you hear. Do not interrupt students. Instead, take note of their errors in the use of target language and write these errors on the board. Encourage students to correct them first. Be sure to point out and praise students for language used correctly as well.

Grouping students
It is good to have students work in a variety of settings: individually, in pairs, in groups, and as a class. This creates a more student-centered environment and increases student talking time.
- The easiest and quickest way to put students in pairs is to have two students sitting close to one another work together. This is good for when students need to have a quick discussion or check answers.
- To ensure students don’t always work with the same partner and/or for longer activities, pair students by name, e.g., Maria work with Javier.
- One way to put students in groups is to give them a number from 1 to 4, and then have all number 1s work together, all number 2s work together, and so forth.

Instructions
- Give short instructions and model the activity for the students.
- Check your instructions, but avoid asking, Do you understand? Instead ask concept questions such as, Are you going to speak or write when you do this activity?

Monitoring
- Make sure you go around the room and check that the students are doing the activity and offer help as necessary.
- Monitor closely during controlled practice, but don’t make yourself too accessible during fluency activities; otherwise, students may rely on you to answer questions rather than focus on communicating their ideas to their partner or group.

Teaching lower-level students
- Teach the Classroom Language on page xxiii and put useful language up in the classroom, so the students get used to using English.
- Don’t rush. Make sure all the students have had enough time to practice the material.
- Do a lot of repetition and drilling of the new target language.
- Encourage students to practice and review target language by doing activities in the Workbook and Self-study.
- Elicit answers from your students and involve them in the learning process. Even though they are beginners, they may have a passive knowledge of English. Find out what they already know by asking them questions.
- Use the optional activities within the Teaching Notes and the Supplementary Resources Overview charts at the beginning of each unit in this Teacher’s Edition to add variety to your lessons.

Teaching reading and listening
- Reading and Listening texts are meant to help the students become better readers/listeners, not to test them. Explain to your students why they need to read or listen to a text several times.
- Adapt the reading speed to the purpose of the reading. When the students read for gist, encourage them to read quickly. When students read for detail, give them more time.
Classroom Language  Student questions

Any questions?

Excuse me, can you repeat that?

Can you speak more slowly?

What’s the answer for number 4?

How do you spell...?

How do you say... in English?

What does... mean?

How do you pronounce this word?

In Unit 1, students introduce oneself and others, and talk about oneself and learn about others. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to introduce themselves and others using be and possessive adjectives, and ask and answer Wh-questions to find out information about others and to state information about themselves. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to ask and answer yes/no questions to find out information about others and to state information about themselves.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use be and possessive adjectives in a conversation about people meeting for the first time

TIP
To learn your Ss’ names, have them make name cards. Each S folds a piece of paper in thirds and writes his or her name on one side. Then they place the name cards on their desks.

[CD 1, Track 1]
- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask: “Where are the people? What are they doing? How old are they?” Encourage Ss to make guesses.
- Set the scene. Arturo is meeting Alexa for the first time.
- Books closed. Write these questions on the board:
  1. Where is Alexa from?
  2. Where is Arturo from?
- Play the first part of the audio program. Elicit Ss’ answers. (Answers: 1. Brazil 2. Mexico)
- Write this on the board for the next task:

  First name

  Last name

  Alexandra/Alexa

  Arturo

  - Play the first part of the audio program again. Ss listen to find out Alexa’s and Arturo’s last names. Then elicit the answers and write them on the board. (Answers: Costa, Valdez)
  - Books open. Play the first part of the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently. Ss stand up and practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
  - Option: Ss use their own information to practice the first part of the conversation. Before they start, ask Ss to underline the names and countries, so they know what information to substitute.
  - Ask: “Where is Soo-jin from?” Play the rest of the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: South Korea)
  - Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

SPEAKING

Learning Objectives: introduce oneself; check information about others

A Pair work
- Introduce yourself to the class using your first and last names. Explain that sometimes people misunderstand information like names, so it’s important to ask polite questions to check information. Focus Ss’ attention on the useful expressions box. Go over each expression. Point out the intonation of the questions.
- Have Ss ask you the questions from the box. Respond with information about yourself. Then model the example dialogue with a strong S, and spell your last name.
- Ss use their own information to ask and answer the questions with the classmate sitting next to them and then with three different classmates.
- Option: Review the letters of the alphabet.

B Class Activity
- Explain the task. Then choose a student and model the task for the class. Tell the class the student’s name and how to spell it.
- Ss tell the class about the first person they spoke to in part A.
3 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use be in a conversation between three people who have just met

A [CD 1, Track 2]
- Books closed. Set the scene. Alexa is introducing Arturo to Soo-jin. Ask: “What is Soo-jin’s last name?” Play the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: Kim)
- Books open. Elicit or explain the meaning of What’s . . . like? Ask the class: “Where is Arturo from? What’s it like?” Ss check answers in the Conversation on page 2. (Answers: Mexico, really beautiful)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently. Then they practice it.
  For a new way to practice this conversation, try Look Up and Speak! – download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 3]
- Elicit names of cities in Mexico (e.g., Mexico City, Acapulco). Then read the two focus questions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answers to the questions. Elicit the answers.

Audio script
- Soo-jin: So, Arturo, where are you from?
- Arturo: I’m from Mexico.
- Soo-jin: Really? What city?
- Arturo: Puebla.
- Soo-jin: Interesting. What’s it like there?
- Arturo: Well, it’s a really beautiful city, and the food there is great!

Answers
- Arturo is from Puebla. It’s a really beautiful city, and the food is great.

4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by linking words

[CD 1, Track 4]
- Explain that some English words sound unnatural when pronounced separately. Therefore, native speakers usually link these words.

5 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: make statements/contractions with be; use possessive adjectives to describe oneself and others; ask and answer Wh-questions with be

[CD 1, Track 5]
- Introduce yourself (“I’m . . .”). Explain that it’s common to use contractions (e.g., I’m) when speaking. Tell Ss to go around the room and introduce themselves.
- Go over the contractions in the Grammar Focus box. Close your thumb and first finger to show how the pronouns + be become contractions. For example, your thumb (you) and first finger (are) contract to become you’re.
- Explain the difference between subject pronouns and possessive adjectives by writing this on the board:
  I am Arturo. My name is Arturo.
  You are Soo-jin. Your name is Soo-jin.

Statements with be and contractions of be
- Introduce yourself (“I’m . . .”). Explain that it’s common to use contractions (e.g., I’m) when speaking. Tell Ss to go around the room and introduce themselves.
- Go over the contractions in the Grammar Focus box. Close your thumb and first finger to show how the pronouns + be become contractions. For example, your thumb (you) and first finger (are) contract to become you’re.

Possessive adjectives
- Explain the difference between subject pronouns and possessive adjectives by writing this on the board:
  I am Arturo. My name is Arturo.

Answers
1. My name is Aiko Yoshida. I’m from Japan. My family is in Nagoya. My brother is a college student. His name is Haruki.
2. My name is Matias. I’m from Santiago. It’s a really nice city. My sister is a student here. Our parents are in Chile right now.
3. I’m Angelica, but everyone calls me Angie. My last name is Newton. I’m a student at City College. My parents are on vacation this week. They’re in Las Vegas.

Option: Play the audio program for the Conversation on page 3 again. Then tell Ss to practice linking sounds in selected sentences (e.g., This is Arturo.).

Option: For more practice with possessive adjectives, try the Chain Game – download it from the website.
[CD 1, Track 6]

Wh-questions with be

- Write these questions and answers on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Questions</th>
<th>Answers</th>
</tr>

Books closed. Ask Ss to match the questions and answers on the board.

- Books open. Ss check answers with the Grammar Focus box. Answer any questions.
- Play the audio program.
- Option: Divide the class into two groups. Group A asks the questions and Group B answers. Then change roles.

B

- Ss complete the questions individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. Who is/Who's that?
2. Where is/Where's she from?
3. What is/What's her first name?
4. Who are the two students over there?
5. Where are they from?
6. What are they like?

Cycle 2, Exercises 6–12

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss school subjects

- Books closed. Ask Ss what school subjects they study in addition to English. Then ask Ss to name as many school subjects as they can.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Then read the list of school subjects in the box. Did the class name all of these subjects? Elicit or explain any unfamiliar subjects.
- Students write the names of the subjects under the pictures individually.
- Go over the answers with the class.

<table>

- Option: Put Ss into small groups based on their favorite subject. Then each group decides on their least favorite subjects and gives reasons. Have groups share their answers with the class.
7 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use yes/no questions and short answers with be in a conversation about finding out more information about someone

[CD 1, Track 7]
- Introduce the Conversation title. Ask: “How’s it going?” Help Ss with responses (e.g., fine, not bad).
- Set the scene. A few days after meeting, Arturo sees Soo-jin and starts a conversation.
- Write these questions on the board:
  1. Are Arturo’s classes interesting this semester?
  2. Are Arturo and Alex in the same biology class?
  3. Is Arturo’s class in the afternoon?
  4. Does Soo-jin invite Arturo to get coffee?

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. A semester is a part of the school year, usually about 15–18 weeks.
- Books closed. Play the audio program twice. Elicit answers to the questions on the board. (Answers: 1. yes 2. no 3. no 4. yes)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently.
- Ss stand up and practice the conversation in pairs.

8 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask yes/no questions and give short answers with be

  Julia and Elena are sisters.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the statements. Point out that statements begin with a subject + verb.
  Arturo is a student.
  S V
  Julia and Elena are sisters.
  S V
- Option: If you don’t want to teach the terms subject and verb, use the numbers 1 and 2 instead.
- Explain that yes/no questions begin with a verb + subject. For example:
  Is Arturo a student?
  V S
  Are Julia and Elena sisters?
  V S
- Option: If you don’t want to teach the terms subject and verb, use the numbers 1 and 2 instead.
- Ask Ss to change any remaining statements on the board to yes/no questions. Give help as needed.
- Ss study the Grammar Focus box questions.

Short answers with be
- Present the short answers in the Grammar Focus box. Point out that there are two ways of saying “no” for each pronoun, except for I.
- Ask yes/no questions with be about Ss in the class. Ss respond with short answers.
- Play the audio program. Focus Ss’ attention on the stress in short answers (e.g., Yes, I am. No, I’m not).

A
- Ss complete the conversations individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers
  1. A: Is Mr. Jones from the United States?
     B: Yes, he is. He’s from Baltimore.

B
- Explain the task. Ss write answers to the questions individually. Then they ask and answer the questions in pairs, giving the correct information for “no” answers.

C Group work
- Model the task with the first question. Ss write questions individually. Then they ask their questions.
- Option: Ss write questions in small groups. Collect the questions and give them to different groups. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions.
9 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: say hello and good-bye in various ways

TIP
To show Ss the purpose of an activity, write the learning objective on the board. At the end of the activity, ask Ss to say what they have achieved.

A
• Explain the task. Ss write the expressions they know in the chart.
• Copy the chart headings Hello and Good-bye on the board. Go over the first two examples with the class.
• Elicit the answers from the class and write them on the chart. Go over each expression as you write it.
Then elicit more expressions and have Ss write them in the chart on the board.

Answers

Answers

1. b 2. d 3. a 4. c

C Class activity
• Model the conversation with a S.

10 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for detail in conversations of people giving information about themselves

[CD 1, Track 9]
• Explain the task and the information in the chart. Ask the class: “What is William’s last name? What else do we need to find out about him?”
• Play the first conversation in the audio program. Ss listen for William’s last name, where he’s from, and what he studies.
• Play the rest of the audio program. As Ss listen and complete the chart, copy the chart on the board.
• Elicit answers and have Ss write them in the chart on the board. Do not correct wrong answers.
• Play the audio program again. Stop after each conversation and discuss the answers on the board.

- Focus Ss’ attention on the title of the reading. Elicit or explain the meaning of trendy. Ask: “What do you think this article is about?” Elicit ideas.
- Ss scan the text quickly to find the names. Ask: “Are any of these names popular in your country? Can you think of other names like these?” Elicit names from the class.

B
- Explain the task. Read the statements.
- Ss read the article individually.
- Elicit or explain any unfamiliar words from the reading.

Vocabulary
- trendy: fashionable, in style at this time
- unique: only one of its kind
- popular: everybody likes it
- space: the area outside of the Earth
- star: a small point of light in the sky
- moon: the shining round object that moves around the Earth
- planet: a large object in space that moves around the Sun

C
- Explain the task. Read the questions aloud and give your own answers as a model.
- Ss complete the task in small groups.
- Call on students to tell the class about some of the names they discussed.

In Unit 2, students ask and answer questions about jobs, and describe routines and daily schedules. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to ask and answer questions about occupations using the simple present. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe routines and daily schedules using time expressions.

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss popular part-time jobs

- Books closed. Introduce the topic of jobs. Ask: “Do you have a job? What is it? Do your parents have jobs? What do they do?”
- List three jobs from the Snapshot on the board. Ss give their opinion on the best job. (Answers will vary.)
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

- part-time job: a job for only a few hours or days a week
- babysitter: a person who takes care of babies or children when the parents are away
- fitness instructor: a person who leads exercise classes
- office assistant: a person who leads exercise classes
- sales associate: a person who sells things in a retail store
- social media assistant: a person who helps create and update content on social media
- tutor: a person who teaches private lessons

- Explain the task. Encourage Ss to give reasons for their opinions.
- Ss complete the task in small groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.

2 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: categorize types of jobs

- Ask Ss to look through the vocabulary list. Elicit or explain any new words. Model the pronunciation of new words.

TIP

If you don’t have enough time to explain new words in class, ask Ss to look them up in a dictionary before class.

- Ss complete the word map individually or in pairs.
- While Ss are working, draw the word map on the board. Ask different Ss to come up and write their answers in the correct category. Go over answers with the class.

TIP

To provide variety, check answers in different ways. For example, write each answer on a separate card. Ss post the cards on the board in the correct category.

Answers

(Note: Additional examples are italicized.)

3 To review jobs, play the game Simon Says – download it from the website. For example, if Simon says, “Be a singer,” Ss act out the job.
3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: describe common occupations and workplaces

Group Work
- Brainstorm workplaces with the class. Write ideas on the board.
- Divide the class into teams and explain the task. Sit in the chair and ask a student to write a job on the board. Then model how to play by asking the example questions with Ss from different teams. Say, “Is this person a server?” to make a guess. Ss should answer Yes, he or she is./No, he or she isn’t.
- Then teams play the game. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Make note of any grammar, pronunciation, or intonation problems to review with the class at the end of the game.

4 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use simple present Wh-questions and statements in a conversation about jobs

A [CD 1, Track 10]
- Set the scene. Derek and Amy are talking about their jobs. Tell Ss to cover the text. Focus their attention on the picture. Ask: “What does Amy do? How does she like her job?” Encourage Ss to guess.

TIP
Give Ss (or ask Ss to bring) small cards to cover the text. That way, they can see the picture but not the text. Ask Ss to keep their cards for future classes.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to check their guesses.
- Write these focus questions on the board:
  True or false?
  1. Derek has a full-time job.
  2. Derek is always tired after work.
  3. Amy doesn’t like her job.
- Books closed (or text covered). Play the audio program again. Then check answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. false (He has a part-time job.)
  2. true 3. false (She thinks her job is great.))
- Books open (or uncover the text). Play the conversation line by line, giving Ss time to repeat it.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 1, Track 11]
- Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the second part of the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Amy</td>
<td>Yes and no. I travel with a small group of people from New York. But I also meet new dancers and musicians in every city. Last month I worked in Rome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answers

Amy travels with a small group of people from New York. She meets new dancers and musicians in every city.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website. Have Ss replace the underlined words:

A: What do you do, Derek?
B: I’m a server. I serve people food. And what do you do, Amy?
A: I’m a dancer. I work with incredible people.
Learning Objective: ask and answer simple present Wh-questions

[CD 1, Track 12]

Simple present statements

• Books closed. Write these sentences on the board, allowing space between lines:
  I work part-time as a server.
  I work at Stella’s Café downtown.
  I’m on my feet all day, so I’m always tired.
• Books open. Ask: “Who said this?” (Answer: Derek) Ask Ss to describe his job. Write the new version below the original:
  He works part-time as a server.
  He works at Stella’s Café downtown.
  He’s on his feet all day, so he’s always tired.
• Point out that the verbs for he, she, and it end in -s.
• Option: Repeat the activity with sentences about Amy.

TIP
Write the letter s on a card. Every time Ss forget to use the final -s, hold up the card. Write the word does on a separate card for the same purpose.

• Focus Ss’ attention on the last column in the Grammar Focus box. Point out the spelling changes that occur with he/she.

Simple present Wh-questions

• Draw a chart with six columns on the board. Number the columns from 1 to 6.
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 9. Ask Ss to find questions with the word do in part A. Then read the first question about Amy in part B. Write them in the chart:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
<th>6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What</td>
<td>do</td>
<td>you</td>
<td>do?</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What</td>
<td>restaurant</td>
<td>do</td>
<td>you</td>
<td>work</td>
<td>at?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How</td>
<td>do</td>
<td>you</td>
<td>like</td>
<td>it?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Who</td>
<td>does</td>
<td>Amy</td>
<td>travel</td>
<td>with?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
• Focus Ss’ attention on the questions in the chart and in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming Wh-questions in the simple present: Wh- + do/does + subject + verb?
• Ask Ss the questions in the Grammar Focus box. Ss use their own information for the first three questions.
• Play the audio program. Ss listen and repeat.

A

• Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers with a partner.

TIP
To build Ss’ confidence, have them compare answers in pairs or groups before you check answers as a class.

• Go over answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

   B: Not much, but he has some extra money to spend!

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Model asking and answering the questions with a S. Have Ss take notes on their partner’s answers so they can use the notes to write about their partner in Exercise 6.
• Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check for use of the simple present.

C Class work

• Model the task. Ask a S to tell the class about their partner.
• Go around the class, giving each S a chance to speak.
6 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a biography

A
- Tell Ss to read the model biography silently. Explain any new vocabulary. Point out that the biography does not have the person’s name.
- Ss write their biographies. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss write the biographies for homework.

B Class activity
- Collect the biographies and number them. Then pass them around the class. Ss make a numbered list and write their guesses next to each number.

End of Cycle 1
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 7–12

Learning Objective: use time expressions in a conversation about daily routines

A [CD 1, Track 13]
- Point out the title and the picture. Ask: “What is this conversation about?” Elicit ideas.
- Books closed (or text covered). Ask: “Where does Kristina work?” Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: She works at the National Bank.)
- Write these questions on the board:
  1. What time does Kristina usually start work?
  2. What time does Kristina eat dinner?
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen for the answers. (Answers: 1. at 1:00 in the afternoon 2. at 10:30 P.M.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently. Then they practice in pairs.
- Option: To review the simple present, ask Ss to describe Kristina’s daily routine from memory.

B [CD 1, Track 14]
- Read the two focus questions.
- Play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

<table>

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Ask: “What words follow at, in, and on?” Different Ss write the words inside the circles on the board.
- Elicit or explain the rules:
  - at + times of day; night
  - in + parts of day (except night)
  - on + days of the week

For more practice with prepositions of time, play Run For It! – download it from the website.

A
- Ss complete the task individually or in pairs.

10 LISTENING

B Class activity
- Elicit Ss’ responses. Then take a class vote.

11 INTERCHANGE 2

See page T-115 for teaching notes.
Learning Objectives: make predictions; read for specific information in an article about jobs

TIP
To help Ss focus on the task, tell them not to worry about words they don’t understand. Encourage them to keep reading when they see new words.

A
• Set the scene. Explain that young people have jobs that didn’t exist when their parents were young, especially jobs related to computers, the Internet, and smartphones. There are also jobs that weren’t popular many years ago. Ask: “What are some jobs that parents don’t understand?” Elicit ideas and write them on the board.
• Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures. Tell Ss to cover the text. Ask: “Who studies people? Who helps people exercise more?” Encourage Ss to guess.
• Then set a time limit of one minute. Ss skim the article quickly to check their guesses. (Answers: Nico studies people. Lisa helps people exercise more.) Then elicit or explain Danny’s and Carla’s jobs.
• Have small groups discuss why these jobs, and others, are hard to understand. Have groups share their ideas with the class.

B
• Explain the task. Tell Ss to guess the meanings of any new words.
• Ss read the article and complete the task. Go over answers with the class.

Answers
1. Lisa
2. Nico
3. Carla
4. Danny

C Pair work
• Read the focus questions with the class. Elicit ideas from the class for other jobs, hobbies, or school classes that are hard to explain.
• In small groups, Ss discuss the questions.
• Have groups share their ideas with the class.
• Option: Have small groups look back through the jobs in Exercises 1, 2, and 3 and find the three jobs that are most difficult to explain. Groups determine the reason each job is difficult to understand and then explain it to the class.

End of Cycle 2
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: “What did you learn in Units 1 and 2?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
  1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
  2. Ask Ss: “What do you need to practice?” Then assign exercises based on their answers.
  3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one’s ability to make an introduction using basic greeting and leave-taking expressions; demonstrate one’s ability to ask for repetition or clarification

A Pair work

- Read the instructions aloud and focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Explain that Ss should pretend they don’t know their partners in this role play.
- Model the role play with a S. Explain how to use the conversation cues.
- Ss role-play the conversation in pairs. Encourage Ss to use appropriate body language and gestures, add follow-up questions, and ask for clarification where appropriate.

- Option: Ss introduce themselves without referring to the example conversation.

B Group work

- Each pair joins another pair. Ss introduce their partners to the other pair and ask follow-up questions.

TIP

If you don’t have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

2 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about oneself and others

- Explain the task and model the first question. Ss should consider if the questions are Wh- or yes/no questions.
- Ss work individually to write the seven questions. Point out that there may be more than one correct question for each answer.
- Go over Ss’ questions with the class.

- Possible answers
  1. What’s your name?
  2. Where are you from?
  3. Are your classes interesting?
  4. What’s your favorite class?
  5. Is your teacher American?
  6. What are your classmates like?
  7. Who is your best friend?

- Ss work in pairs. They take turns using the questions to interview each other. Encourage Ss to add follow-up questions.

- Option: Each S uses the questions to interview another S.
SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask about and describe common jobs

A
• Explain the task. Then elicit things a software engineer does and write them on the board.
• Ss complete the task individually or in pairs.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to understand descriptions of people’s occupations and routines

A [CD 1, Track 19]
• Set the scene. Austin and Haley are talking about work and school.
• Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart.

Audio script
Austin Hey, Dylan. How are you?
Dylan I’m great, Austin. Welcome to my house. Oh, Austin, this is my friend Haley.
Austin Hi, Haley. It’s nice to meet you.
Haley Nice to meet you, too, Austin.
Dylan Excuse me.
Haley So how do you know Dylan?
Austin Oh, we work in the same office.
Haley Really? What do you do?
Austin I’m a web designer. I’m also in school.
Haley That’s exciting! What do you study?
Austin I study art history.
Haley Oh, cool! How do you like it?
Austin It’s OK. I’m very busy. I usually finish with work and school at 10:30 and get home at 11:00.
Haley That’s late!

B
Group work
• Ss compare their lists in small groups. Encourage Ss to ask Wh-questions about the jobs (e.g., What does a software engineer do? Where does a software engineer work?).
• Go around the class and check Ss’ use of the simple present.

Speaking

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about routines

A
• Elicit or explain the meaning of a perfect day. Model the task by having a S ask you the questions.

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”
• Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
• If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

In Unit 3, students ask about and describe prices and discuss preferences. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to use demonstratives, one, and ones to ask about and describe prices. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to discuss preferences using comparisons with adjectives.

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: describe the meaning of colors

- Books closed. Ask several Ss: “What is your favorite color?” Write the colors on the board. Help with vocabulary for colors as needed.
- Ask several Ss to choose between pairs of adjectives for colors. For example, ask: “Is red exciting or sad? Is white jealous or hopeful?”
- Books open. Explain that colors have different meanings in different countries. Discuss the meanings in the Snapshot. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

- hopeful: feeling positive about the future
- truthful: honest
- friendly: nice to other people; sociable
- powerful: strong
- jealous: unhappy because you want someone’s things
- confident: believing you can do anything
- creative: good at thinking of new, unique ideas

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use demonstratives, one, and ones in a conversation about asking about prices while shopping

A [CD 1, Track 20]

- To set the scene, focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask: “Where are they? What are they doing?”
- Write this focus question on the board:
  - What color sweater does he buy?
- Books closed (or text covered). Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: green)
- Option: Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. How much is the light blue sweater?
  2. Why does he buy the green sweater?
  Then play the audio again. Ss check answers. (Answers: 1. $150 2. It’s on sale./It’s not too expensive.)
- Books open (or uncover the text). Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

B [CD 1, Track 21]

- Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Salesclerk We also have this beautiful blue watch.
Customer Oh, that’s pretty. My sister likes watches.
Salesclerk It’s on sale today only.
Customer How much is it?
Salesclerk It’s $52.50.
Customer Hmm... I don’t think so. I’ll just take the sweater. Thanks for your help.

Answers

He looks at a watch. He doesn’t buy it.
Learning Objective: use demonstratives, one, and ones to ask about and describe prices

Demonstratives
- Books closed. Point to Ss’ things and make statements with this and these (e.g., “This is Paul’s pen. This is Lily’s necklace. These are David’s glasses.”).
- Hold some things close to show how we use this or these for nearby things. Explain that this refers to a singular thing, while these refers to plurals.
- Option: Ss place their things in a bag. Each S takes out something and says whose it is (e.g., “This is Iris’s pen.”).
- Place something far away to show how we use that and those. Ss point to things and make statements (e.g., “That is Hector’s book. Those are Tony’s keys.”). Explain that that refers to a singular thing, while those refers to plural things.
- To check Ss’ understanding of demonstratives and review colors, ask about things in the room (e.g., “What color is this pen? What color are those books?”).

One/Ones
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 16. Ask Ss to find examples of one and ones.
- For each example, ask: “What noun does one replace?” (Answers: the light blue sweater or the green sweater) Elicit the rule: One replaces a singular noun. Note that ones replaces a plural noun.
- Play the first part of the audio program.

Saying prices
- Play the rest of the audio program. Ss repeat the prices. Present additional examples as needed.
- For practice in listening for prices, play Bingo using prices instead of words – download it from the website.

Answers

1. A: Excuse me. How much are those jeans?
   B: Which ones? Do you mean these?
   A: No, the light blue ones.
   B: Oh, those are $59.95.
   A: Wow! That’s expensive.
2. A: How much is that backpack?
   B: Which one?
   A: The orange one.
   B: It’s $36.99. But this green one is only $22.25.
   A: That’s not bad. Can I see it, please?

Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to choose prices for the boots, baseball caps, and sunglasses.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Point out the useful expressions box. Elicit or explain the meaning of the words cheap, reasonable, not bad, and expensive. Elicit prices of sneakers to use as examples of each word. Then Ss take turns asking and answering questions about the items. Go around the class to check for the use of demonstratives and one or ones.
- Option: If you live in an English-speaking environment, have Ss go to a store to ask the prices of three things in English.
- Option: Bring in clothing catalogs. Ss use them to practice the conversations.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website.
4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by using correct sentence stress

A [CD 1, Track 23]
- Remind Ss that in each word, one syllable has more stress. Explain that important words in a sentence also have more stress.
- Read the examples, clapping on the stressed words.
- Play the audio program. Ss clap on each stressed word.
- Play the audio program again. Pause for Ss to repeat the sentences, stressing important words.

B Pair work
- Ss practice the conversations in part A of Exercise 3 again. Correct Ss’ use of sentence stress as needed.

5 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: ask about prices of items for sale

A Pair work
- Place several items of different colors on your desk. Use things such as notebooks, watches, phones, or bags.
- Model the task with a S.
- Ss work in pairs. Tell Ss to ask about the price of more than one item.
- Ss change roles and try the role play again.

6 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details in conversations about shopping

A [CD 1, Track 24]
- Set the scene. Two people are shopping. They want to know the prices of four things.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the color and price rows in their books.

Audio script

1. Woman Look at this! It’s really awesome – and it’s purple!
   Man It’s nice. But you have a tablet. How much is it?
   Woman Let’s see . . . Wow, it’s expensive! It’s $499. I guess I don’t really need it. Let’s go.
2. Man Here are some great headphones for you!
   Woman Which ones? Those white ones?
   Man No, these. The blue ones.
   Woman Oh, these are nice. Are they expensive?
   Man Not really. They’re only $9.95.
   Woman That’s reasonable. I think I’ll get them.
3. Man What do you think of these sunglasses?
   Woman They’re . . . interesting. How much are they?
   Man They’re only $11.50. That’s cheap.
   Woman Try them on. They look great! Green is a good color on you.
   Man OK. I’ll get them.

10 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use adjectives to state preferences and make comparisons

[CD 1, Track 28]
Preferences

• Bring some items to class that are similar (e.g., two rings, two hats, two pens, two T-shirts).

• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 19. Ask: “Which dresses do Alex and Kristin prefer? Why?” Write the answers on the board and underline the words likes and better.

Kristin likes the black one better. It looks more stylish. Alex likes the other one better. The material is lighter than the black one.

• Point out that like better means prefer.

• Hold up two similar items (e.g., two hats). Ask two or three Ss: “Which one do you prefer?” Elicit the response: “I prefer . . .” or “I like . . . better.” Repeat with other pairs of items.

• Option: Use two pairs of similar items to review ones.

Comparisons with adjectives

• Underline more stylish and lighter in the sentences on the board. Then draw two columns on the board, like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>lighter</td>
<td>more expensive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nicer</td>
<td>more stylish</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>prettier</td>
<td>more beautiful</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

TIP
To help Ss see the differences in grammar forms, use different colors on the board.

• Point out that column 1 has two one-syllable adjectives (light, nice) and one two-syllable adjective that ends in -y (pretty). The comparative forms of these adjectives end in -er.

• Point out that column 2 has adjectives of two or more syllables (e.g., expensive). The comparative forms of these start with more.

• Elicit more comparative adjectives for both columns. Ask different Ss to write them on the board.

• Point out the spelling rules in the Grammar Focus box. A final -y changes to -i when we add -er (prettier), and a single vowel + consonant doubles the consonant (bigger).

• Present the irregular forms: good – better and bad – worse. Then play the audio program.

• Hold up two items again. Ask: “Which . . . do you prefer? Why do you prefer it/them?” Elicit answers.

• Option: Ask Ss to look back over previous units to find more adjectives. (See pages 7 and 16.) Elicit the comparative forms and ask different Ss to write them in column 1 or 2.

A

• Explain the task. Remind Ss to look at the pictures when answering.

• Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. A: Which of these jackets do you like more? B: I prefer the leather one. The design is nicer, and it looks more expensive than the wool one.

2. A: These sweaters are nice. Which one do you prefer? B: I like the gray one better. The color is prettier. It’s more attractive than the brown and yellow one.

3. A: Which rings do you like better? B: I like the silver ones more. They’re smaller than the gold ones. And they’re cheaper.

• Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

B Pair work

• Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures in part A. Model the conversation with a S. Go over the useful expressions.

• Ss work in pairs. They talk about the useful expressions.

For more practice making comparative forms, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

11 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a paragraph about favorite clothes

A

• Have Ss read the questions and sample paragraph. Allow three minutes.

• Ask: “What are the writer’s favorite clothes? What clothes doesn’t the writer like so much?” (Answers: cotton T-shirts and jeans; shirts and ties, pants, suits.)

• Have Ss list their favorite clothes and adjectives that describe the clothes or why they like them. Then Ss list the clothes they don’t like as much and the reasons.

• Ss work individually. They write a paragraph comparing their favorite clothes and the clothes they don’t like.

B

• Ss work in small groups. They read each other’s paragraphs and ask questions.
Learning Objectives: skim for main ideas; read for specific information in an article about online shopping

TIP

To help Ss understand what reading strategy to use, focus their attention on the purpose of the task. For example: “Today we’re going to practice skimming a text to find the main points.”

A

- Set the scene. Ask: “How often do you go shopping? Do you shop online? What kind of things do you buy on the Internet?”
- Explain that this article is about unusual things people can buy online.
- Option: If Ss have access to the Internet, tell them to look at shopping or online auction websites to look for odd and unusual things for sale. If Ss have smartphones, they can look on shopping apps.
- Go over the task. Elicit some reasons from the class. Then they skim the text quickly to check their reasons.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

- crazy: strange
- extraordinary: unusual or out of the ordinary
- online: using the Internet
- land: the surface of a planet
- certificate: an official document
- place a bid: compete against other people to buy something by offering a specific amount of money
- pet rock: a small rock used as a humorous “pet” in place of living animals or plants in the 1970s

B

- Explain the task. Ss read the article. Ss then answer the questions individually.
- Option: Ss work in pairs. One S answers questions a and b, while the other S answers questions c and d. Then they share their answers.
- Ss compare answers in pairs or small groups.

Answers

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>c</td>
<td>someone to stand in line, paragraph 2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d</td>
<td>a piece of land on the moon, paragraph 1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C

Group Work

- Explain the task. Read the first sentence. Ask the class where they can find information about pet rocks in the article. (Answer: paragraph 4) Read the remaining questions.
- Ss work in small groups to discuss the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Have groups share their discussions with the class.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use yes/no and Wh-questions with do in a conversation about entertainment likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 29]
- Set the scene. Seth and Leanne are talking about music. Ask: “Who do you see in the pictures?”
  (Answers: Taylor Swift, Drake)
- Books closed. Write these statements on the board:
  1. I can’t wait for the Taylor Swift concert this Friday!
  2. I guess I don’t listen to pop music a lot.
  3. I really like hip-hop.
  4. Drake is my favorite musician.
- Ask: “Who says these things – Seth or Leanne?” Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answers. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Leanne 2. Seth 3. Seth 4. Seth)
- Point out the expressions I guess I don’t listen to . . . , I really like . . . , and . . . is my favorite. Ask: “What do you think of Taylor Swift? Drake?”
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ask these comprehension questions: “What kind of music does Seth like? What does he think of pop music?” Elicit Ss’ answers. (Answers: Hip-hop. He doesn’t listen to it.)
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
  ! For a new way to practice this conversation, try Say It with Feeling! – download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 30]
- Read the focus questions aloud. Play the audio program once or twice.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Leanne  What about bands, Seth? Who do you like?
Seth  Well, they’re not new, but my favorite band of all time is Maroon 5.
Leanne  Maroon 5? Really?
Seth  Why? Don’t you like them? They’re classic!
Leanne  No, I don’t. I guess they have some good songs, but they’re very . . . noisy.

Answers

His favorite band is Maroon 5. No, because she thinks their music is very noisy.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer yes/no and Wh-questions with do to discuss entertainment likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 31]

Yes/No and Wh-questions with do
- Ask Ss to find three questions with do or does in the Conversation in Exercise 3. Write the questions on the board, in columns:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Doesn’t Drake play the guitar?</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
- Focus Ss’ attention on the questions on the board. Elicit the rule for forming questions with do: Wh-question + do/does + subject + verb?
- Elicit new questions from Ss and write them in the columns on the board.
- Point out the language in the Grammar Focus box. Play the audio program for the first and second columns.

Object pronouns
- Go over the object pronouns in the Grammar Focus box. Play the audio program for the third column.
- Ask Ss to find and circle the example of an object pronoun in the Conversation in Exercise 3. (Answer: her) Ask: “What does her refer to?” (Answer: Taylor Swift)
- Explain the task. Model the first answer.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then Ss compare answers with a partner. Go over the answers with the class.

Answers

1. A: I like Alabama Shakes a lot. Do you know them?
   B: Yes, I do, and I love this song. Let’s download it.
2. A: Do you like science fiction movies?
   B: Yes, I do. I like them very much.
3. A: Do Vinnie and Midori like soap operas?

   B: Classical music. She loves Yo-Yo Ma.
   A: Yeah, he’s amazing. I like him a lot.
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.
5 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by using intonation when asking questions

A [CD 1, Track 32]
- Books closed. Use your voice and gestures to demonstrate intonation. Explain that intonation is the rise and fall of the voice.
- Play the audio program. After each question, ask: "Is the voice going up or down?"
- Elicit or explain the rule: Yes/no questions have rising intonation, and Wh-questions have falling intonation.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss repeat the questions. Ask different Ss to read the questions and check their intonation.

TIP
If Ss repeat things as a group, it's hard to hear if they're using correct pronunciation or intonation. Therefore, check some individual Ss' pronunciation.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Model the questions using correct intonation.
- Ss work in pairs. Go around the class and check individual Ss' use of intonation.
- Option: Ss look back at the Conversation in Exercise 3 on page 23 and mark (with arrows) rising or falling intonation above the questions. Ss then practice the conversation again in pairs, paying special attention to intonation.

6 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: discuss entertainment likes and dislikes

A Group work
- Write two example questions on the board, e.g.: Do you like TV? What kind of TV shows do you like?
- Ask different Ss to answer the questions.
- Explain the task. Ss work individually to write five questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss take turns asking their questions in small groups. Set a time limit of five to seven minutes. Remind students to pay attention to intonation.
- Go around the class and listen to Ss' responses.
- Option: Encourage Ss to give longer responses (e.g., No, I don't, but I love . . ., I'm a big fan of . . ., I prefer . . .).

B Group work
- Ss work in small groups. One S leads the discussion to make sure everybody speaks (e.g., What's your favorite . . .? What about you, . . .? What do you think, . . .? It's your turn to ask a question.). Another S records the answers.
- The S who recorded the answers reads the responses, and the group decides the favorites. Then the Ss complete their charts.

TIP
Assigning each S in the group a role (e.g., note-taker, leader, English monitor, reporter) encourages all Ss to participate.

C Class activity
- Write these expressions on the board: Our favorite . . . is . . . We all like . . . We don't agree on . . .
- Explain that Ss can use these expressions to report their group's favorites.
- One S from each group reports the results to the class. Another S from each group writes the results on the board.
- Discuss the favorites as a class.
- For more practice with yes/no questions, play Twenty Questions – download it from the website.
LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about people’s likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 33]
• Set the scene. Alexis is on a game show. She is going to interview three men. The audience will choose one for a date.
• Play the audio program. Ss complete the chart.

TIP
If an audio program is long and contains many details, break it into parts. Pause the audio program after each part.

• Ss compare answers in pairs.

Audio script
Host [applause] Welcome to The Perfect Date, the show where we help people find their perfect date! Today, we’re going to help Alexis. I’m going to introduce her to Jacob in Miami, Tyler in Chicago, and Andrew in Los Angeles. They’re all waiting for her right now on video chat. Right, guys?
Jacob, Tyler, and Andrew Right!
Host So, Alexis, are you ready?
Alexis Yes, I’m ready.
Host Then go ahead!
Alexis OK. My first question is about music. Jacob, what kind of music do you like?
Jacob Oh, classical music.
Alexis Classical. OK. And how about you, Tyler?
Tyler Well, I like jazz.
Alexis And you, Andrew?
Andrew My favorite music is rock.
Host How about you, Alexis?
Alexis Well, I like pop music. I don’t like jazz or classical music very much.
Host Hmm. The guys aren’t doing very well, yet. Try another question, Alexis.
Alexis OK. Next I’ll ask about movies. Jacob, what kind of movies do you like?
Jacob Well, I like action movies.
Alexis Uh, well, you know, I really like talk shows.
Alexis And, Andrew, how about you?
Andrew I like game shows a lot.
Host So, Alexis, what do you like?
Alexis Well, I like talk shows and game shows.
Host OK! Time is up! Now, who’s the perfect date for Alexis? Go to perfectdate.cambridge.org to choose, or text us at the number on your screen.

B Class activity
• Ss discuss the best date for Alexis as a class and give reasons for their opinions.

Possible answers
Andrew is the best date because he and Alexis like horror movies and game shows. They all disagree about music.

Cycle 2, Exercises 8–12

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use would and verb + to + verb in a conversation about making, accepting, and declining invitations

A [CD 1, Track 34]
• Play the audio program. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently. Then Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 1, Track 35]
• Read the focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script
Connor So, do you like the concert?
Camila Well, the Purple Lips are a little noisy. But I like The Arcades a lot. Where is your brother? I don’t see him.
Connor Um... he’s at home.
Camila What? Why?
Connor He’s in bed with the flu. See, here’s his text.
Camila Oh, that’s too bad!
Connor I know. Would you like to go to his concert next month?

Answers
She thinks it is OK. No, he didn’t play because he is in bed with the flu.
GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use would and verb + to + verb to make, accept, and decline invitations

[CD 1, Track 36]
Would
- Refer Ss to the Conversation on page 25. Ask: “How does Connor invite Camila?” Write his question on the board: Would you like to go?
- Explain that we use Would you like to . . . ? for polite invitations. It is more polite than Do you want to . . . ?
- Ask Ss to find Camila’s response. Ask: “What does she say?” Write it on the board: Thanks, I’d love to.
- Point out that I’d = I would. Explain that there are different ways to accept an invitation. Camila uses one. Add two more to the board:
  - Yes, I would.
  - Yes, I’d love to (go).
- Play the audio program for the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Ss read silently.

Verb + to + verb
- Refer Ss again to the Conversation on page 25. Camila invites Connor to have dinner at 6:00, but he doesn’t accept. Ask: “What were his words?” Write them on the board: Well, I’d like to, but I have to work late.
- Explain that we often use the structure verb + to + verb when making excuses. Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit examples.
- Play the audio program for the second and third columns.

A
- Explain the task. Questions 1–3 require an acceptance or a refusal. Questions 4–6 require an invitation.
- Ss work individually. Go around the class and check their answers. If you notice common problems, stop and go over them with the class.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns asking and answering the questions.

C Pair work
- Explain the task. With Ss, brainstorm three things to do. Model inviting a S to do one of those things. Your S partner uses some of the follow-up questions.
- Have Ss first think of three real or imaginary things they would like to do. Then they practice inviting each other. Remind Ss to use Would you like to . . . ? and to include follow-up questions.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write and respond to text messages

A
- Point out that Ss practiced oral invitations. Now they will make text message invitations.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the text message. Ask Ss to guess its meaning. (Answer: Are you busy Saturday? Do you want to go to the beach? I don’t know. I have to ask my parents. I’ll be right back.)
- Discuss abbreviations. Explain that people use abbreviations because there is very little space on smartphone screens. Elicit the words the text message abbreviations stand for. (Answers: R = are, u = you, 2 = to, IDK = I don’t know, BRB = be right back)
- Ask the class: “Who do you write text messages to? What do you write about? Which abbreviations do you use?”

B Group work
- Ss work in groups of three. Ss work individually to write a message to the other two Ss in their group.
- Ss exchange messages with the other Ss in the group. They read each message and write a response (e.g., Would u like 2 study English 2morrow? / Yes pls.). Then they return the responses. (Note: If Ss can’t think of an invitation, encourage them to look at the Grammar Focus or at the Conversation on page 25 for ideas.)
- Option: In Ss’ responses, they write questions asking for more information. They continue to exchange and return responses, answering questions and asking for more information until they accept or refuse the invitations.
- Option: If Ss have smartphones, they can practice sending text messages in class or for homework.

INTERCHANGE 4

See page T-118 for teaching notes.
12 READING

Learning Objectives: scan a time line for details; read a biography of an entertainer; develop skills in sequencing events

- Books closed. Draw these diagrams on the board:

BEYONCÉ

We know          We'd like to know

- Ss brainstorm ideas in pairs. If they have difficulty, suggest possible topics (e.g., hit songs, age, full/real name, nationality). Then Ss come to the board and write things they know or would like to know in the correct diagram. Don’t correct Ss if they are wrong. Just correct their language.

A

- Books open. Point out that the time line shows the history of Beyoncé’s life.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures. Ask Ss to talk about who and what they see.
- Allow Ss two minutes to scan the article quickly and find the dates for the pictures. (Answers: 2008 and 2013) Remind Ss not to read the whole article but to look quickly for key words (e.g., Jay-Z, president).

For a new way to introduce this Reading, try Cloud Prediction – download it from the website.

B

- Explain the task. Focus Ss’ attention on the first event on the time line. Tell Ss to find the sentence in part B that matches this event. (Answer: b)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

- go platinum: to sell more than a million (1,000,000) albums/records/CDs

7. f. She has a baby.
2. g. Her group gets its first recording contract.
6. h. She helps hurricane victims.

TIP

If your Ss speak languages that have similar vocabulary to English, encourage them to look for cognates, or words with similar forms and meanings (e.g., solo, president).

- Focus Ss’ attention on the diagrams on the board. Ask: “What did you learn? What do you still want to know? Where can you find this information?”
- Option: Books closed. Ask: “How much can you remember about Beyoncé?” Ss work in pairs to list facts.

C Pair work

- Read the questions aloud. Ss discuss their favorite musicians in pairs. Then ask Ss to share information with the class.
- To review vocabulary from this reading, play Picture It! – download it from the website.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: “What did you learn in Units 3 and 4?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one’s ability to listen for prices; demonstrate one’s ability to discuss likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 37]

- Set the scene. Price Cut City is having a sale today. Ss will hear the prices of six items.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss talk about the items in part A and give their own opinions about them in pairs. Are the things expensive, reasonable, or cheap? Where would they buy these items?

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to state preferences and make comparisons while shopping

- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures in Exercise 1 and explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A wants to buy presents for his or her family at Price Cut City. Student B is helping Student A choose presents.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Elicit other expressions and comparisons to use in the role plays.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Have Ss give the items different prices and try the role play again.
3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about entertainment using the simple present

A
- Explain the task. Ss work individually. They write one more question in the first column. Then they write answers to the questions in the Me column.

B Class activity
- Explain and model the task. Say: “I usually watch TV at (7:00). When do you usually watch TV?” Ask different Ss until someone gives the same answer.

4 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to make, accept, and decline invitations using would and verb + to + verb

A
- Explain the task. Then ask a S to read the example invitation in the book.
- Elicit suggestions for other interesting activities and write them on the board.
- Hand out three index cards to each S. Explain the task. Ss write three different invitations individually (one per card). Point out that they should not put their names on the cards.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B
- Ask different Ss to read the three response cards. Elicit other ways of accepting or refusing an invitation. Encourage Ss to suggest silly or unusual excuses for refusals.

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

Interchange Teacher’s Edition 1 © Cambridge University Press 2017  Photocopiable
In Unit 5, students describe families and talk about habitual and current activities. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe families and ask and answer questions using the present continuous. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to use quantifiers to describe families.

What an interesting family!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–7

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: Identify and discuss family relationships

A

- Write the word family in a circle on the board. Then write the words mother and father around the circle.
- In pairs, Ss brainstorm words for family members and make a list. Then they compare lists with another pair. Go around the class and note the words on their lists.

TIP

To avoid teaching words Ss already know, start by asking Ss the words they know. Then teach any remaining vocabulary.

- Ask Ss to find Joseph and circle his picture. Then ask: "Who is Keiko?" (Answer: his wife) Ask Ss to write wife under Keiko's picture and check (✓) wife in the vocabulary list.
- Ss complete the exercise in pairs. Go over the answers with the class and check pronunciation.

Answers

- grandfather and grandmother (Betty)
- father (Robert) and mother
- aunt and uncle (Arturo)
- Joseph (husband) and his wife (Keiko)
- brother and sister-in-law (Nicole)
- cousin (Veronica)
- son and daughter (Emily)
- niece (Alyssa) and nephew

- As needed, teach other family words (e.g., great-grandfather, great-grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, son, stepbrother, stepsister, only child, twins, parents, ex-wife, ex-husband). Use pictures to present additional vocabulary.

- Option: For more practice, ask questions about another person in the family tree (e.g., Deborah). Possible questions include: Who is Deborah’s husband? Who is her sister-in-law?

B

- Explain the task. Ss draw their family trees individually. Point out that single Ss can include their grandparents, parents, brothers, and sisters, while married Ss can include their husband or wife, children, and grandchildren.
- Draw your family tree on the board while Ss complete the task.
- Model the task by describing your own family. Then encourage Ss to ask you questions. If needed, present or review words such as married, single, divorced, widowed, or deceased.
- Ss complete the task in pairs or small groups. Go around the room and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions (e.g., How old is he? What does he do?).
- Elicit interesting things Ss learned about their partners.

TIP

To personalize the class and make the language more meaningful, encourage Ss to bring their own materials to class.

To review the vocabulary of family, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Ask Ss to draw a family tree while you say: "Amanda has one brother and one sister. Her brother, Edward, is married to Jean. They have three children. Amanda’s sister, Mary, is married to Mike. They have one daughter. Amanda has a husband. His name is Charlie."

Option: Ask Ss to bring in pictures of their family. Ss show each other family photos in small groups. Encourage them to add two pieces of information for each photo (e.g., This is my brother. He’s 27, and he’s a lawyer.).
2 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for specific information on how people are related

[CD 1, Track 38]
- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures. Ask: “How are the people related?” Encourage Ss to make guesses.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the task.

Audio script

1. Woman Who’s that guy?
   Ryan That’s Quincy Jones. He’s famous for his work in the music business, and he’s a great musician himself.
   Woman That’s strange. I don’t think I’ve seen him before.
   Ryan Well, I know you’ve seen his daughter.
   Woman Is her last name Jones, too?
   Ryan Yes, it is. Her name’s Rashida Jones.
   Woman Rashida Jones? Oh, I love her! She was in my favorite TV show!

2. Man What are you reading, Brianna?
   Brianna An article about Ashton Kutcher. He’s in a new TV show.
   Man That’s good news! I really liked his last show.
   Brianna Do you know who he married in 2015?
   Man Hmm . . . Demi Moore?
   Brianna No. Mila Kunis.
   Man I didn’t know that! What a cool couple!

3. Mom What are you watching, Samantha?
   Samantha Oh, hi, Mom. I’m watching a new movie with Emma Roberts.
   Mom Oh, yes, Emma Roberts. I thought her aunt was great in Notting Hill.
   Samantha Who’s her aunt?
   Mom Julia Roberts. She’s such a great actress.
   Samantha I’ve never heard of her. What’s Notting Hill?
   Mom It’s a movie from the nineties. You should watch it. It’s great.
   Samantha The nineties? That’s kind of old. But I’ll watch it – if I can find it.

4. Man What website is that?
   Woman It’s called Star Watcher. It has all kinds of news about famous people. Look at this picture.
   Man Oh, cool! That’s Cameron Diaz. I love her. But who’s that with her?
   Woman That’s Nicole Richie, the fashion designer.
   Man Oh, yeah, I know her. But I didn’t know they were friends.
   Woman Actually, they’re more than just friends. Cameron married the musician Benji Madden, and Nicole married Joel Madden, Benji’s brother.
   Man So they’re sisters-in-law! I didn’t know that. I need to follow celebrity news more often.

- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. daughter 2. wife 3. aunt 4. sister-in-law

3 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present continuous in a conversation about families

A [CD 1, Track 39]
- Set the scene. Max is asking about Tina’s family. Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures. Ask: “How do you think they’re related to Tina?” Elicit ideas.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 1, Track 40]
- Read the two focus questions aloud. Play the audio program once or twice.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Tina So, what about your parents, Max? Where do they live?
Max They live in California.
Tina Oh, where in California?
Max In Sausalito. It’s a small city, but it’s very nice.
Tina Are they still working?
Max Oh, yes. My mother is teaching at a university in San Francisco, and my father has a bookstore.

Answers

They live in Sausalito, California. Max’s mother teaches at a university in San Francisco, and his father has a bookstore.

4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when using intonation in statements

A [CD 1, Track 41]
- Play the audio program. Point out the falling intonation. Ss repeat the statements. Ask different Ss to say the statements to check their intonation.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss’ intonation.
Learning Objective: ask and answer questions using the present continuous

[CD 1, Track 42]

Simple present vs. present continuous

- Draw this chart on the board:
  - Usually
  - Right now
  - Tina’s sister
  - Tina’s brother

Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: “What does Tina’s sister do? What is she doing right now?” (Answers: She works for a medical aid organization. She’s treating patients in Cameroon.) Complete the chart. Repeat the procedure for Tina’s brother. (Answers: He’s a writer. He’s traveling in Thailand.)

- Elicit or explain the difference between the two tenses (simple present = habitual actions; present continuous = actions that are happening right now).
- Compare the formation of the two tenses:
  - She works. (subject + verb)
  - She is working. (subject + be + verb + -ing)

Present continuous questions and statements

Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: “Why can’t Max meet Tina’s family?” Elicit the answers, and write them on the board:

- Tina’s sister is not working in the U.S. right now. Tina’s brother is traveling in Thailand.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the present continuous:
  - Be + subject + verb + -ing?
  - (Wh-question) + be + subject + verb + -ing?

- Ask Ss to underline the time expressions in the Grammar Focus box that show the action is temporary or current: this year, now, these days.
- Play the audio program.

A

- Explain the task and model the first question.
- Ss complete the task individually. Encourage Ss to use contractions in statements. Review contractions as needed.
- Ss go over their answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. A: Hi, Brittany. What are you doing?
   B: Hey, Zach. I’m eating a sandwich at O’Connor’s.
   A: Mmm! Is it good?
   B: Yeah. It’s delicious. Wait, they’re bringing my dessert now. It’s chocolate cake with ice cream. Call you later! Bye!

2. A: So, Madison, how are you and your sister doing in college?
   B: We’re having a lot of fun, Mom!
   A: Fun? OK, but is your sister going to class every morning?
   B: Yeah, Mom. She’s working hard and I am, too. I’m serious!

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Elicit some examples of opening questions that use the present continuous.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Encourage Ss to use contractions in statements. Go around the class and help as needed.
- Ss practice their dialogues in pairs.
- Option: Ss practice the conversations sitting back-to-back or with their cell phones.

C Class work

- Pairs read their dialogue to the class.
- Option: Collect all of the written dialogues and distribute them randomly to new pairs. Each pair reads a new dialogue aloud.

What an interesting family!

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss facts about different countries

- Books closed. Write these statements on the board:
  1. In Argentina, 80% of the population lives in rural areas.
  2. In Russia, 99.7% of the population can read and write.
- Review percentages if needed. Ask Ss to guess if these facts are true or false. Then elicit their guesses.
- Books open. Tell Ss the answers. (Answers: 1. False (around 10% live in rural areas) 2. True) Ask: “Who was right? Do these facts surprise you? Why?”
- Go over the other facts about the countries. Explain any unfamiliar vocabulary. Then Ss mark each fact as True or False.
- Go over the answers with the class. Elicit a few examples of facts that surprised the Ss.
- Ss then discuss which facts surprised them and why in small groups. Ss discuss how they think their country compares to the facts in the quiz and then share other interesting facts they know.
- Have groups share their discussion with the class.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use quantifiers in a conversation about families

A [CD 1, Track 43]

- Ask the class: “How many brothers do you have? How many sisters?” Elicit answers.
- Draw this chart on the board:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Where from?</th>
<th>Number of brothers/sisters?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Vicky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Luis</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
- Books closed. Set the scene. Luis and Vicky are talking about their families.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers. Ask Ss to complete the chart on the board if they know the answers. Play the audio program again as needed and ask Ss to add to or change the information in the chart. (Answers: 1. China, no brothers or sisters, yes 2. Peru, two brothers and four sisters, no)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

Answer

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 44]

- Ask: “Why does Luis like having a big family?” (Answer: Because he gets lots of birthday presents.)
- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make predictions and write them on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out if any prediction on the board is correct.

Audio script

Luis: So, do you like being an only child?
Vicky: Of course. I get all my parents’ attention.
Luis: Yeah, I share my parents’ attention with six other people.
Vicky: Well, you probably never feel lonely!
Luis: Do you ever feel lonely?
Vicky: Sure. But it’s OK. I have a lot of friends.

Answer

She gets all her parents’ attention.
10 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use quantifiers to state facts

[CD 1, Track 45]

- Explain that when people don’t know the exact percentage of something, they use words like most or some. Point out the quantifiers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Explain that all these quantifiers come before plural nouns except one. Ask Ss which one does not. (Answer: no one)
- Play the audio program.
- Ask Ss to find two sentences with quantifiers in the Conversation on page 33. (Answers: a lot of families in China . . . , Many families . . . )
- Ask: “Who is from a big family? Raise your hand.” Then elicit a statement about the class that starts with a quantifier (e.g., Most students in the class are from big families). Ask more questions and elicit more statements with quantifiers (e.g., Are you single? Do you live at home? Are you an only child?).

A

- Explain the task. Model the first answer.
- Ss rewrite the sentences individually. Point out that more than one quantifier may be possible. Then Ss go over their answers in pairs.
- Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers
1. In the U.S., most high school students go to college.
2. Few people in Brazil are age 65 or older.
3. In India, no one votes before the age of 18.
5. In Canada, not many people speak French at home.

B Pair work

- Explain the task and elicit the first answer. Write it on the board.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then each pair joins another pair to compare answers.
- Option: Ss make statements about the true versions of the facts in the Snapshot on page 33 using quantifiers instead of percentages.
- For more practice with quantifiers, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

11 WRITING

Learning Objective: write an email describing one’s family

A

- Ss read the example email silently.
- Elicit information Ss can include in a description of their family (e.g., names, ages, jobs, where they live). Write all ideas on the board.
- Ss write emails about their family. Encourage them to use quantifiers.

B Group work

- Ss read each other’s emails in small groups and ask each other for more information.

For a new way to prepare for this Writing, try Mind Mapping – download it from the website.
Learning Objectives: make predictions; read an article for main ideas and details about families

- Books closed. Ask: “Does your family spend a lot of time together?” Elicit answers from Ss.

A

- Books open. Read the title and go over the task.
- Explain that the first sentence of a paragraph usually gives you its main idea. This is called a “topic sentence.”
- Ss read the topic sentences of the paragraphs. Ask: “Do families spend a lot of time together?” (Answer: Some families do, some families don’t.)

B

- Go over the six questions. Then Ss read the article silently and answer the questions.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- fresh air: air outside buildings that is clean and cool
- barbecue: cooking food over a fire outdoors
- housework: work people do to take care of the home, such as cleaning
- make an effort: try to do something

- Ss compare their answers in groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Go over answers with the class.

C Group work

- Read the four questions. Then Ss discuss the questions in small groups.
- Go over the answers with the class.

In Unit 6, students discuss sports and exercise habits, and ask and answer questions about frequency of free-time activities. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss sports and exercise habits. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to ask and answer questions about frequency of free-time activities.

How often do you run?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–9

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: identify and discuss common sports and fitness activities

- Books closed. Introduce the topics of sports and fitness. Ss brainstorm sports and fitness activities. Write Ss’ ideas in two columns on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sports</th>
<th>Fitness activities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>football</td>
<td>walking</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>baseball</td>
<td>jogging</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>basketball</td>
<td>weight training</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

TIP
To make new vocabulary easy for your Ss to copy, make a vocabulary list on one side of the board. Add new words to the list throughout the class.

- Ask Ss to guess the sports and fitness activities people from the U.S. like best.

2 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe sports and fitness activities using collocations with do, go, and play

A
- Go over the activities in the chart. In pairs, Ss match the activities to the pictures. Elicit or explain any unfamiliar vocabulary. Martial arts are traditional methods of fighting and self-defense, and include karate, judo, and taekwondo. Pilates is a fitness activity done on a machine or a mat that strengthens the body’s core.
- Explain and model the task. Ask: “What age groups like bike riding?” Point out that there is no single correct answer.
- While Ss complete the task individually, write this conversation on the board:

  A: What age groups like (bike riding)?
  B: I think it’s popular with (young adults).
  A: I agree OR I don’t really agree. I think it’s popular with (children).
- Model the conversation with one or two Ss. Then Ss use the model conversation to compare answers in pairs.

B Pair work
- Present the rules for these collocations:
  go + activities ending in -ing, except weight training play + games, such as sports played with a ball do + fitness activities and individual exercises
- Ss complete the task in pairs. To check answers, write the verbs do, go, and play on the board. Ask different Ss to write the answers. Give help as needed.

Answers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<th>go</th>
<th>play</th>

<td>play golf</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>do Pilates</td>
<td>go jogging</td>
<td>play soccer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>do yoga</td>
<td>go swimming</td>
<td>play volleyball</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Option: Ss circle the activities and sports they enjoy. Then they compare with a partner.

For more practice with sports and exercise vocabulary, play Sculptures – download it from the website.
CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use adverbs of frequency in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 1]
- Use the pictures to set the scene. Ask: “Where are Riley and Aaron? What are they doing? What do you think they like to do in their free time?”
- Books closed. Write these sentences on the board:
  1. Riley does yoga often.
  2. Aaron exercises every day.
- Ask: “Are these sentences true or false?” Play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. false 2. false) Elicit the correct answers. (Answers: 1. Riley runs on the treadmill/lifts weights often. 2. Aaron hardly ever exercises.)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- Seriously?: Really?
- couch potato: a person who watches a lot of TV and is not very active

B [CD 2, Track 2]
- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make guesses. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answer.

Audio script

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Aaron</th>
<th>What else do you like to do, Riley?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Riley</td>
<td>Well, I like to play the drums a lot. I play every day. It drives my mom crazy!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Aaron</th>
<th>Hey, I play the guitar!</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Riley</td>
<td>Well, listen, we could start our own band! Why don’t we play after class today?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aaron</td>
<td>Cool!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answer

She plays the drums.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about how frequently one engages in various free-time activities

A [CD 2, Track 3]
- Adverbs of frequency
  - Write these sentences on the board:
    - I ______ exercise.
    - I ______ just watch TV.
  - Ask Ss to find the missing words in the Conversation in Exercise 3 and write them on the board. (Answers: hardly ever, usually) Explain that these are adverbs of frequency. Point out that they go before most verbs. Focus Ss’ attention on the second column of the Grammar Focus box.
  - On the board, write: I’m always late. Point out that adverbs of frequency go after the verb be.
  - Point out the third column. Explain that the percentages show how often something happens.
  - Now focus Ss’ attention on the first column. Ask: “Where do these adverbs go?” (Answer: at the end of a statement or question)
- Play the audio program.
  - Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently. Ask: “Are you more like Riley or Aaron?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
  - Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
  - For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Moving Dialog – download it from the website.
  - Explain the task. Model the first example. Ss complete the task individually.

   B: No, I hardly ever ride a bike.
8. A: Do you sometimes walk to school?
   B: Sure. I walk to school five days a week.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss ask and answer the questions in part A in pairs, using their own information.
  - For more practice with adverbs of frequency, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website. Write different adverbs of frequency in the nine boxes.
5 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when using direct address

A [CD 2, Track 4]
- Play the audio program. Use gestures to demonstrate falling intonation. Elicit or explain that direct address statements end with falling intonation.
- Play the audio program again. Ss repeat the statements individually.

B Pair work
- Explain the task and model it by writing an example statement.
- Ss write four statements in pairs. Then they practice them. Go around the class and check Ss’ intonation.

6 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about how frequently one exercises

A Group work
- Focus Ss’ attention on the directions. Explain that a poll has two parts. First everyone answers the same questions. Then you compare and summarize the answers.
- In small groups, Ss take turns asking each other questions. One S takes notes. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss add up their points and compare the results of their poll to see who got at least six points. Then one S in each group reports the information to the class.
- Explain the task. Model the example. Give groups a few minutes to decide who to tell about. One S in each group reports on another person from their group.

7 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for key words and specific information in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 5]
- Set the scene. Three people are talking about their favorite evening activities. Have Ss brainstorm things people do in the evening.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for favorite activities and complete the first column in the chart. Write the chart on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for how often Joseph, Victoria, and Carlos do the activities. Ss complete the second column.
- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.
- If Ss have difficulty understanding the audio program, try to find out where they have difficulty. Replay that part of the program and ask what they hear.

B [CD 2, Track 6]
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen to find out who is most similar to them. Then they discuss their answers in pairs or small groups.

TIP
- If Ss have difficulty understanding the audio program, try to find out where they have difficulty. Replay that part of the program and ask what they hear.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss Olympic sports and athletes

Group work
- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask: “What are the Olympics?” Elicit or explain that the Olympics are a series of sports contests that take place every four years in winter and in summer. See if Ss can name when and where any of the recent Olympics have taken place (e.g., Winter: 2014 Sochi, Russia; 2010 Vancouver, Canada; 2006, Turin, Italy; Summer: 2016 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; 2012 London, U.K.; 2008 Beijing, China)
- Explain that you want Ss to discuss the questions for ten minutes. Point out that it’s important to speak fluently, so it’s OK to make errors.
- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in small groups. Go around the class and ask follow-up questions.
- Option: If the groups want to discuss the questions in more depth, allow them to look up answers to the questions and additional information on their smartphones.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write about weekly activities

A
- Explain the task. Point out that Ss can write about any weekly activities, not just sports. Ss read the example paragraph silently.
- Ss make notes about their weekly activities individually.
- Ss write a paragraph based on their notes. Remind Ss to include their favorite activity, but not to reveal which one it is.

For a new way to teach this Writing, try Pass the Paper – download it from the website.

B

Group work
- Explain the task and read the example question. In small groups, Ss read their own descriptions and group members guess which activity is the writer’s favorite.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 10–14

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 7]
- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit ideas and vocabulary.
- Write this focus question on the board:
  Do Steph and Mick usually play tennis together?
- Then play the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: no)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. How often does Mick play tennis?
  2. How well does Mick play tennis?
  3. How good is Steph at tennis?
- Play the audio program again and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. three times a week 2. pretty well 3. not very good)
- Option: Have Ss close their eyes as they listen to the audio program.
- Ss read the conversation silently. Then they practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 2, Track 8]
- Read the focus question and ask Ss to guess who wins. Then play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answer.

Audio script

| Steph | Good game, Mick. |
| Mick  | Thanks. You, too. And congratulations on the win. You play pretty well. |
| Steph | Oh, no, not really. |
| Mick  | How often do you play? |
| Steph | Once or twice a year. I’m just lucky today, I guess. Want to play another game? |
| Mick  | Um . . . sure. Just let me take a five-minute break. |

Answer

Steph is the winner.
11 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how

[CD 2, Track 9]

Questions with how

- Books closed. Write these questions and answers on the board in two columns:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>B</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>How often do you work out?</td>
<td>Pretty well.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How long do you spend at the gym?</td>
<td>Twice a week.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How well do you play tennis?</td>
<td>Not so good.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How good are you at sports?</td>
<td>Two hours a week.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Ss match the questions in A with the answers in B.
- Books open. Ss check their answers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit or explain the difference between how often and how long (how often = with what frequency, how long = in how much time).
- Focus Ss’ attention on the second column. Ask: “How are how well and how good different?” (They have the same meaning, but good is an adjective and well is an adverb. Use how good with be and how well with other verbs.)

Short answers

- Point out that answering in complete sentences sounds unnatural. Therefore, people use short answers.
- Play the audio program.

A

- Explain the task. Ss work individually to complete the questions. Check Ss’ work as they finish. Ask Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.
- Ss check answers against the board. Then they practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

1. A: How good are you at sports?
2. A: How long do you spend online?
3. A: How often do you go to the beach?
4. A: How well can you swim?

B Group work

- Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in small groups. Tell Ss to ask follow-up questions using how often, how long, how well, and how good.

12 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details in a conversation about exercise

[CD 2, Track 10]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Four friends (Rachel, Nicholas, Zack, and Jennifer) are talking about sports and exercise.
- Play the audio program.
- Books open. Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures and read the captions aloud. Ask: “What do you think each type of person is like?”
- Play the audio program again. Have Ss identify the four people.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rachel</th>
<th>Nicholas</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>How good are you at sports, Nicholas? Are you kidding? I’m terrible! But I love to watch sports. I go to basketball games all the time. I really love college basketball. I like to read sports news, too. I check a few websites every day.</td>
<td>Awesome!</td>

Answers

13 INTERCHANGE 6

See page T-120 for teaching notes.
Learning Objective: skim and make inferences about items in a health and fitness quiz

A
- Read the title. Ask: “What is this? How is it different from a quiz in class?” Elicit ideas.
- Tell Ss to look over the quiz. Ask: “Where can you find this kind of quiz? What is the quiz about?” (Answers: in a magazine or newspaper; health and fitness)
- Go over the task. Then Ss skim the questions in the quiz. Ask Ss to write down the score they think they’re going to get.

B
- Explain the task. Read the first question and ask Ss to choose the answer that is true for them.
- Ss read the quiz individually and mark their answers.
- Option: Ss work in pairs and take turns asking each other the questions. They complete the quiz for each other.
- Go around the class and elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

C Group work
- Ss compare their scores in small groups. Ask Ss to list five things they can do to improve their health and fitness. Point out that they can use ideas from the quiz.
- Each group joins another group and shares ideas. Then elicit ideas from the groups.

End of Cycle 2
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Vocabulary
- servings: portions of food
- junk food: food that is not good for you

• Ss add up their points. Then they read the Rate yourself! section.
• Ask: “Are the points the same as you guessed? More than you guessed? Fewer than you guessed? Do you agree with your score? Why or why not?”
• Option: Ss give the quiz to friends or family members for homework. Then they share the results in class.

- Ss give the quiz to friends or family members for homework. Then they share the results in class.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: “What did you learn in Units 5 and 6?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
2. Ask Ss: “What do you need to practice?” Then assign exercises based on their answers.
3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to listen and infer what people are doing

A [CD 2, Track 11]

- Explain the task. Ss will hear four sounds of people doing different things. Ss guess what the person is doing and write sentences using the present continuous.
- Model the task. Ask Ss to close their eyes. Then do something that makes a distinctive sound (e.g., write on the board, sharpen your pencil). Ask: “What am I doing?” Ss answer in the present continuous (e.g., You’re writing on the board). Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart. Help with vocabulary as needed.

Answers
1. Someone is using/running on a treadmill.
2. Someone is weight training/lifting weights.
3. Someone is bowling.
4. Someone is playing a computer game.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Model the example conversation with a S. Elicit different ways of agreeing and disagreeing.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss’ use of the present continuous.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about present activities

Group work
- Explain the task. Ss work in small groups. One S chooses a person in the room. The other Ss take turns asking present continuous yes/no questions until they guess the person’s identity. The S who guesses correctly has the next turn.

Model the example conversation. Take the role of Student A and ask other Ss to take the roles of Students B, C, D, and E.
- Ss play the game in small groups.
3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about oneself, one’s routines, and one’s family

A Group work
• Explain the task and read the instructions aloud.
• Ss read the questions in small groups. Then, as a group, they add two more yes/no questions about family life. Encourage Ss to use both the simple present and the present continuous.
• Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions. They write the number of yes and no answers in the correct columns. Remind Ss to include their own answers.

4 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about free-time activities, routines, and abilities

Group work
• Explain the task. Ss choose three questions and check (✓) them individually. Then they ask each other the questions in small groups. When someone answers “yes,” the S must add at least one follow-up question, including how questions (e.g., how well, how often, how good).

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”

B Group work
• Explain the task. For each question, Ss add up the number of yes/no responses in their group. Then they write a sentence to describe the group’s responses using determiners (e.g., most, some, a few, all).
• Ss complete the task in groups. Then they read their sentences to the class.
• Option: Complete the activity as a class.

• Option: Ss think of their own questions beginning with Do you ever . . . ?
• Ask three Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other possible follow-up questions.
• Ss complete the task. Go around the class and check for use of follow-up questions.

• Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
• If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

In Unit 7, students describe past daily and free-time activities, and describe past vacations. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss daily and free-time activities using the simple past with regular and irregular verbs. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to discuss vacations using the past tense of be.

We went dancing!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–8

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss free-time activities

- Option: Ask Ss to guess eight free-time activities. Later, Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Books open. Ask different Ss to read the leisure activities aloud. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ask: “Do you think these are popular free-time activities? Why or why not?” Elicit Ss’ answers.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the simple past in a conversation about past events

A [CD 2, Track 12]

- Set the scene. Neil and Cara are talking about their weekends. Ask Ss to use the pictures to predict what each person did. Elicit or explain vocabulary in the pictures.
- Option: Ss list all the words they can see in the pictures. Find out who has the most words.
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. What did Cara do on Saturday?
  2. What did Neil do?
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. She had pizza and then went dancing with some friends. 2. He stayed home all weekend and studied for the Spanish test.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 13]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to guess. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over the answer with the class.

Audio script

<table>
<thead>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cara</td>
<td>Oh, I worked. I have a part-time job at the university bookstore.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Neil</td>
<td>I didn’t know you had a job.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cara</td>
<td>Yeah, I’m a cashier there. I work every Sunday from 1:00 to 6:00.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answer

She works on Sunday afternoons.

For more practice talking about last weekend’s activities, play the Chain Game – download it from the website.

TIP

To help Ss who are weak at listening, write the answers on the board. That way, they can see the answers.
GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer simple past questions; use simple past regular and irregular verbs

[CD 2, Track 14]

Simple past questions with did

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 44. Ask Ss to find three questions with did. Then write them on the board. (Answers: What did you do last weekend? Did you go to the Treadmill? Did you go anywhere?)

TIP
Use a different color for target features (e.g., did + verb). This helps Ss visualize the grammar pattern.

- Point out the questions in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rules for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the simple past:
  Did + subject + verb?
  Wh-question + did + subject + verb?

- Elicit more examples and write them on the board.
- Play the audio program. Have Ss repeat the questions and responses.

Regular and irregular verbs

- Point out the regular and irregular verbs to the right of part A. Then draw this chart on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Regular verbs</th>
<th>Irregular verbs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>work → worked</td>
<td>do → did</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>invite → invited</td>
<td>drive → drove</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 44 again. Ask Ss to find the simple past forms of stay and study. (Answers: stayed, studied) Ask a S to write them on the board in the Regular column. Then ask Ss to find and circle the simple past of go and forget. (Answers: went, forgot) Ask a different S to write them in the Irregular column.

- Have Ss turn to the appendix at the back of the book. Tell them to use this list as needed.
- Option: Ask Ss to look for patterns in the list of irregular verbs (e.g., i → a: sit → sat, swim → swam, drink → drank).

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: use the reduction of did you to sound more natural when asking past-tense questions

A [CD 2, Track 15]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the reduction of did you.
- Play the audio program again. Ss practice saying the questions with reductions.

B Pair work

- Explain and model the task. Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss’ use of reductions.
5 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: discuss daily chores and activities using do, go, have, make, and take

A Pair work
- Copy the chart onto the board. Explain the task.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and give help with new vocabulary.
- Option: Allow Ss to use dictionaries.
- Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board. Give help with any collocations they don’t know.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>do</th>
<th>go</th>
<th>have</th>
<th>make</th>
<th>take</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>my homework</td>
<td>online</td>
<td>a party</td>
<td>a phone call</td>
<td>a day off</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>a lot of fun</td>
<td>the bed</td>
<td>a bike ride</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>the laundry</td>
<td>shopping</td>
<td>a good time</td>
<td>a video</td>
<td>a trip</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

B Group work
- Explain the task. Model the conversation with two Ss. Then Ss complete the task and compare with a partner.

6 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss past activities and ask follow-up questions

Group work
- Model the example discussion with three Ss.
- Point out that a good listener shows interest in a conversation by asking follow-up questions.
- Ss complete the activity in groups. Remind Ss to use reduced forms of did you.
- Option: The Ss get one point for each follow-up question they ask. The Ss with the most points in each group win.

7 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about past activities

A [CD 2, Track 16]
- Set the scene. Explain that Andrew is telling Elizabeth what he did, but things didn’t go according to plan.
- Explain the task. Play the audio program and Ss complete the chart.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Elizabeth So, did you have a good holiday yesterday?
Andrew Yes. It was nice to have the day off.
Elizabeth Did you go to the gym?
Andrew No, I couldn’t. It was closed. They were repairing the machines. Instead, a friend and I played soccer.
Elizabeth That’s nice. At least you were able to get some exercise. Did you do anything else interesting?
Andrew Well, I wanted to see the new Matt Damon movie. I went to the movie theater, and it wasn’t playing.
Elizabeth I hate when that happens.
Andrew I know. So, I went back to my house and watched TV for a while.
Elizabeth Did you do anything fun in the evening?

Andrew I had tickets for last night’s baseball game, but it was canceled because of the rain. So, I went to my parents’ house and spent the evening with them instead. My mother baked an awesome chocolate cake.
Elizabeth Oh, I love chocolate cake.
Andrew I know. That’s why I brought you a piece. Here, enjoy!
Elizabeth Thanks, Andrew!

Answers
Andrew played soccer, watched TV, and spent time with family.

B [CD 2, Track 17]
- Explain the task. Read the questions aloud.
- Play the audio program.
- Go over the answers with the class.

Answers
Activities Andrew didn’t do:
- went to the gym: Reason: It was closed.
- saw a movie: Reason: The movie wasn’t playing.
- went to a baseball game: Reason: The game was canceled because of the rain.

Cycle 2, Exercises 9–14

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the simple past of be in a conversation about vacations

A [CD 2, Track 18]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Leah and Cody are talking about Cody's vacation. Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. Did Cody enjoy his vacation?
  2. Where did he go?
  3. How long was he there?
- Play the audio program. Elicit Ss' answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. yes 2. California 3. about a week) Go over any expressions Ss don't understand.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 2, Track 19]

- Ask Ss to predict what happened. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out if any prediction was correct.

Audio script

Leah So, tell me! What happened?
Cody Well, like I said, I went surfing every day. One day, I entered a contest and I won. I got first prize!
Leah Wow! Congratulations!
Cody But that's not all. Someone made a video of me surfing and posted it online. Do you want to see it?
Leah Sure!

Answers

Cody went surfing. He won a contest. Someone made a video of him surfing and posted it online.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use the past of be in questions and short answers

[CD 2, Track 20]

Past of be questions

- Write these questions from the Conversation in Exercise 9 on the board, with was or were underlined:
  1. Was the weather OK?
  2. What was the best thing about the trip?
  3. How was your vacation?
  4. How long were you there?
- Focus Ss' attention on the underlined words on the board and elicit the rules for yes/no and Wh-questions:
  Was/Were + subject + verb?
  Wh-question + was/were + subject + verb?

Was/Were and contractions

- Elicit when to use was and were. Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box if they aren't sure.
  - Use the audio program to present the questions, short answers, and contractions.
  - Explain the task. Model the first conversation with a S.
  - Ss complete the task individually. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

1. A: Were you in New York last weekend?
   B: No, I wasn't. I was in Chicago.
   A: How was it?
   B: It was great! But it was cold and windy as usual.
2. A: How long were your parents in Chile?
   B: They were there for two weeks.
   A: Were they in Santiago the whole time?
   B: No, they weren't. They also went to Valparaiso.
3. A: Were you away last week?
   B: Yes, I was in Madrid.
   A: Really? How long were you there?
   B: For almost a week. I was there on business.
11 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss past vacations and retell a story using the simple past

A Group work
• Books closed. Ss work in small groups. Assign different groups the topics transportation, weather, and food. Groups brainstorm words related to the topics.
• Ask a S from each group to write their words on the board. For example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Transportation</th>
<th>Weather</th>
<th>Food</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>car, bus</td>
<td>rainy, sunny</td>
<td>good, bad</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
• Books open. Explain the task and read the example questions. Ask Ss to think of more questions related to vacations. Write their questions on the board.

B Class activity
• Ss in each group vote for the most interesting vacation. Then one S from each group tells the class about it. Encourage other Ss to ask questions.

12 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a post about a past vacation

A
• Ss read the blog post silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Snorkeling is swimming while using a curved pipe called a snorkel to breathe. Ceramic means made from clay.

B Pair Work
• Explain the task. Tell Ss to use the questions in Exercise 11 for ideas about the topic.

13 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for main ideas and details about vacations discussed using the simple past of be

A [CD 2, Track 21]
• Set the scene. Two friends, Daniel and Amanda, are talking about their vacations.
• Play the audio program. Ask Ss to listen to find out if they enjoyed their vacations. They check yes or no in the chart.

Audio script
Amanda: Daniel! Hi! Welcome back. You were away last week, right?
Daniel: Yeah, I was on vacation.
Amanda: Where did you go?
Daniel: I went to San Francisco.
Amanda: Nice! I didn’t go anywhere on my last vacation. I didn’t have enough money to go anywhere.
Daniel: Oh, my sister lives there. I stayed with her. I went sightseeing, and she loves to shop, so we went shopping every day. Look, I got this sweater.
Amanda: Nice! I didn’t go anywhere on my last vacation. I didn’t have enough money to go anywhere.
Daniel: Oh, that’s too bad.
Amanda: Oh, not really. I actually enjoyed my vacation a lot. A friend from college stayed with me for a week. We just talked and watched a lot of old movies.
Daniel: That sounds fun, too.

Answers
Daniel: Yes   Amanda: Yes

B [CD 2, Track 22]
• Play the audio program again. Ss complete the chart with information about Daniel’s and Amanda’s vacations. Pause the audio for Ss to write as needed.
• Go over answers with the class.

Answers

In Unit 8, students ask about and describe places, and describe a neighborhood. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to ask about and describe places using there is/there are and prepositions of place. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe features of a neighborhood using quantifiers.

How’s the neighborhood?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–6

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe what you do at places in a neighborhood

A
- Introduce the topic of neighborhoods. Ask: “What places do you need to find in a neighborhood?” Elicit Ss’ answers and write them on the board.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Elicit the names of places that might be in the picture (e.g., clothing store, gift shop).
- Model the task. Ask: “What’s a clothing store?” Tell Ss to say “stop” when you read the correct definition. Read out possible answers (e.g., It’s a place where you get food and small items for the home. It’s a place where you can connect to the Internet.) until the Ss say “stop.”
- Ss match the words and definitions individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>f</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>a</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>c</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Go over any errors you noticed, including pronunciation errors.

B Pair work
- Present the example definition for coffee shop. Then elicit more possible definitions from the class (e.g., It’s a place where you meet friends after class.) and write them on the board.
- Ss write definitions for each place in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Possible answers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Place</th>
<th>It’s a place where you . . .</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>coffee shop</td>
<td>drink coffee and eat small meals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>drugstore</td>
<td>buy medicine and toiletries</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>gas station</td>
<td>get gas for your vehicle</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>library</td>
<td>read and borrow books</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>post office</td>
<td>mail letters, cards, and packages</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C Group work
- Model the task. Each pair from part B joins another pair. Pairs take turns giving definitions and guessing places.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use there is/there are and one/any/some in a conversation about places in a neighborhood

[CD 2, Track 23]
- Books closed. Write this question on the board: When you move to a new neighborhood, what do you need to find?
- Elicit answers from the class and write them on the board.
- Set the scene. Greg just moved into a new neighborhood, and he is looking for two things. What are they? Play the audio program.
- Go over answers with the class. (Answer: He’s looking for a grocery store and a laundromat.)
- Books open. Elicit information about the picture. Ask: “What other place does Mrs. Cook suggest? Why?” Then play the audio program again. Ss listen and find the answers. (Answer: She suggests a hair salon because Greg needs a haircut.)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions with there is/there are; answer questions with one/any/some/ prepositions of place

Is there/Are there?

Before class, write these words on nine large cards:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>is</th>
<th>There</th>
<th>a laundromat</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>one</td>
<td>are</td>
<td>grocery stores</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>any</td>
<td>some</td>
<td>near/around here</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

TIP
Cards are useful for helping Ss visualize grammar in an active way. They work well with grammar topics such as word order and substitution.

Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 50. Ask: “What question does Greg ask beginning with is there?” Elicit the question. Then ask four Ss to come to the front of the class. Have them stand in line holding up these cards:

S1: is
S2: there
S3: a laundromat
S4: near/around here

Ask: “What question does Greg ask beginning with are there?” Elicit the question. Then ask five Ss to stand in line holding up these cards:

S1: are
S2: there
S3: any
S4: grocery stores
S5: near/around here

Focus Ss’ attention on the two questions in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming questions with is there and are there.

Is there + a singular noun + near/around here?
Are there any + plural noun + near/around here?

One and some

Ask four Ss to hold up these cards:

S1: there
S2: is
S3: a laundromat
S4: near/around here

Point out that a singular noun and its article such as a laundromat can be replaced by one. Ask another S to take the card one and replace S3.

Repeat the activity with plural nouns. This time, replace grocery stores with some.

Prepositions

Elicit or explain the meaning of the prepositions. Use the map. Ask: “What places are on Elm Street?” (Answer: Star Plaza Hotel, Bing’s Café, Clifford Hotel) Ask Ss about other places using prepositions.

Option: For more practice visualizing the prepositions in an active way, ask Ss to stand across from each other, next to the wall, near the board, etc.

Explain the task and read the example questions. Ss write questions individually. Point out that there should be a preposition in each question.

Ss compare their questions in small groups. They read out their questions and check for grammatical accuracy.

Go around the class and give help as needed. Ask three or four Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.

Possible answers

All questions should follow these patterns:
Is there + a singular noun + a preposition + a place?
(e.g., Is there a bank across from the hotel?)
Are there any + plural noun + a preposition + a place?
(e.g., Are there any hotels on Elm Street?)

Pair work

Model the task two or three times using the map and the questions on the board:

T: Is there a bank across from the hotel?
S1: Yes, there is. There’s one next to the grocery store.
T: Are there any gas stations on Pine Street?
S2: No, there aren’t. But there’s one on Main Street.

TIP
To make sure that Ss understand instructions, always model the task at least twice. If possible, model it with different Ss each time.

Ss take turns asking and answering their questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

For a new way to teach this Grammar Focus, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a town or city center to your Ss. Include streets and places.
4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by reducing there is/there are in long answers

A [CD 2, Track 25]
- Play the audio program. Point out the reduced forms. Ask Ss to practice the short conversations using the reductions. Point out that there is is often contracted to there's in writing, but there are is not.

TIP
It’s more important to recognize reductions than to produce them. Don’t force Ss to produce reductions if they are not ready.

5 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with there is/there are and one/any/some/prepositions of place

A Pair work
- Model the task. Tell the class the name of a neighborhood that they are familiar with. Then model some examples, such as, “In the village center, there's a bank on Green Street. There aren’t any restaurants on Tenth Avenue.”
- Focus Ss’ attention on the chart. Explain the task. Elicit what Ss will write to explain where. (Answer: a preposition and a place) Encourage Ss to look at Exercises 1 and 3 and to use their own ideas.

B Group work
- Explain the task. Model the conversation with three Ss. Point out that Ss should say, “Sorry, I don’t know,” if they don’t know about a place.
- In groups, pairs take turns asking and answering about places. Go around and listen for Ss’ use of there is/there are. Note any errors, but don’t correct them.
- Have groups report who got the most “yes” answers. Then go over any errors on the board with the class.

6 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about places

A [CD 2, Track 26]
- Read out the instructions to set the scene. Then play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the Location column in the chart.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen, decide if the hotel clerk thinks the places are interesting, and check (✓) Yes or No.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script
Clerk Good morning. Can I help you?
Guest 1 Yes, please. We need some directions.
Clerk Sure. What are you looking for?
Guest 1 Well, first of all, we're looking for the Flavors of Hollywood restaurant. How far is it from here?
Clerk Oh, it's just a few minutes from here – right across from the post office.
Guest 2 The post office on Western Avenue?
Clerk Yes, that's one.
Guest 2 Is Flavors of Hollywood a nice place?
Clerk Well, I think so. The food is good, and there are some interesting things to look at in the restaurant from movies like Rocky, The Terminator, and Titanic.
Guest 2 Great! And where is the Museum of Modern Art?
Clerk Well, that's near the City Concert Hall.
Guest 1 Near the City Concert Hall. OK, I know where that is. And what's the museum like?

- Ss discuss the questions in pairs.

End of Cycle 1
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.
7 SNAPSHOTS

Learning Objective: describe different neighborhoods
- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures. Elicit information about the pictures. Elicit or explain new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
suburb: an area outside of a city where people live district: a part of a city that has a lot of one kind of business campus: the land and buildings that belong to a college or university industrial: connected with industry; having a lot of factories

8 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions and use quantifiers in a conversation about a neighborhood

[CD 2, Track 27]
- Elicit information about the picture. Ask: “What is the woman doing? What floor do you think she lives on? What does the neighborhood look like?”
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. What are Barry and Alana talking about?
  2. What does Alana invite Barry to do at the end of the conversation?
- Play the audio program. Ask Ss to listen for the answers to the focus questions. Then go over the answers. (Answers: 1. Alana’s new apartment and neighborhood 2. She invites him to have dinner at the Italian restaurant downstairs.)

TIP
To reduce anxiety, point out that Ss will hear the audio program several times. Remind them that they aren’t expected to understand every word.

- Write these additional focus questions on the board:
  1. Where is Alana’s new apartment?
  2. Is Alana’s new neighborhood safe?
  3. When does it get noisy in Alana’s apartment?
- Play the audio program again. Elicit Ss’ answers. (Answers: 1. downtown 2. yes, there isn’t much crime 3. on the weekends) Then elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
downtown: the business center of a city convenient: easy to get to or find things traffic: the amount of cars and trucks using a road crime: illegal activities
safe: not dangerous; without crime

- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- Option: Ss practice the conversation in pairs again but change the details, such as the amounts of traffic, noise, and crime, and the restaurant type.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Onion Ring technique – download it from the website.
GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with count and noncount nouns and quantifiers

[CD 2, Track 28]

Count and noncount nouns

• Write this chart on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Count nouns</th>
<th>Noncount nouns</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>restaurant</td>
<td>traffic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>café</td>
<td>crime</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

• Ask: “Which nouns take a plural -s ending?” (Answer: restaurant and café) “Which nouns usually don’t take a plural -s ending?” (Answer: traffic and crime)

Explain that restaurant and café are count nouns because we can count them (e.g., one restaurant, two restaurants). However, we don’t count traffic or crime.

For more practice with count and noncount nouns, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

How many and how much

• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 53. Have Ss underline questions with is there and are there (e.g., Is there much traffic? Is there much crime in that area? Is there a lot of noise?).

• Elicit or explain the rules:
  Is there + much + noncount noun?
  How many + count noun + are there?

Quantifiers

• Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out that quantifiers are used to describe different amounts of things (e.g., a lot, a few, any, many, much, none).

• Ask Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box. Ask “How are a lot, any, and none similar?” (Answer: They can be used with both count or noncount nouns.)

• Play the audio program.

A

• Model the first question. Ss complete the exercise individually. Then Ss compare their answers in pairs.

• Go over the answers as a class.

Possible answers

1. Yes, there’s a lot. There’s a little. No, there isn’t much/any. No, there’s none.
2. Yes, there are a lot/many. There are a few. No, there aren’t any. No, there are none.
3. There’s a lot/a little/none. There isn’t much/any.
4. There are a lot/many. There are a few. There aren’t any. There are none.
5. Yes, there’s a lot. There’s a little. No, there isn’t much/any. No, there’s none.
6. Yes, there are a lot/many. There are a few. No, there aren’t any. No, there are none.
7. There is a lot/a little/none. There isn’t much/any.
8. There are a lot/many. There are a few. There aren’t any. There are none.

• Ss ask and answer the questions in pairs.

Option: Ss repeat the task with a new partner.

B Group work

• Explain and model the task.

• Ss write questions individually. Then they take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs.

INTERCHANGE 8

See page T-122 for teaching notes.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write a paragraph about one’s neighborhood

A

• Ss read the example paragraph silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

• Point out that Kate wrote about what she likes and doesn’t like about her neighborhood, the places in it, and what she does every day.

B

• Explain the task. Ss write their paragraphs individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

C Pair work

• Explain the task. While Ss are asking questions, check for correct use of count and noncount nouns.
Learning Objective: scan and read for details in an article about three neighborhoods

A

• Ss cover the text and look at the pictures. Ask: “What do you think this neighborhood in Tokyo is like?” Elicit ideas from the class.
• Go over the task. Point out that Ss should scan quickly to look for the word nightlife. Set a time limit.

TIP
When Ss scan an article, set a time limit. This encourages them to read quickly, focusing only on the task.

• Ss silently scan the article and check (✓) the neighborhood that is famous for nightlife. (Answer: Pigneto, Rome) Elicit answers from the class.

B

• Model the task. Ask Ss to read the first paragraph. Then elicit the main idea.
• Ss read the article in detail. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
hip: very fashionable at the moment
indie: not controlled by anyone else
live music venue: a place where musicians perform music for an audience festival: a series of special events or performances boutique: a small shop that carries specially selected items
locally made: something that is created very close to where it is sold

• Ss write the paragraph letters next to the items.
• Go over answers with the class.

Answers

C Pair work
• Read the questions aloud. Model an example of your favorite neighborhood.
• Ss discuss the questions in pairs. Have some pairs share their answers with the class.

End of Cycle 2
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: “What did you learn in Units 7 and 8?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to understand descriptions of and describe past events

A [CD 2, Track 29]

- Explain the task. Elicit or explain that a thief is someone who commits the crime of stealing, which is taking something that doesn’t belong to him. When the thief enters a house illegally and steals, it is called robbing. A detective is a member of the police who tries to find out what happened.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Detective  Hello, Jimmy. I’m Detective Roberts. Can I ask you a few questions about your weekend?
Jimmy  Hi, Detective. Um, sure. What do you want to know about my weekend?
Detective  Now just tell the truth. Where were you at 1:00 P.M. on Saturday?
Jimmy  Ah . . . 1:00 P.M. . . . on Saturday? Well, oh, I remember! I was at home. I watched the baseball game on TV. Yeah, the White Hats won, four to nothing. It was a great game.
Detective  OK . . . OK. Where were you at 3:00 P.M.? Ah . . . at 3:00? Oh yeah, I went to my martial arts class like I always do, every Saturday at 3:00.
Jimmy  Uh . . . oh, well, after class, I visited some old friends of mine – Jordan and Stephanie Smith, on Lake Street.
Detective  OK, Jimmy . . . and I clearly remember that I went to bed at 10:30, uh, exactly . . . Yeah. I watched the movie, and I went to bed right after . . . uh . . . the movie. Yeah, boy, I was tired – a long day, like I said.
Detective  Interesting. Very interesting, Jimmy. Come on, Jimmy. Let’s go down to the police station.
Jimmy  The police station? Me? Why me? I was at home on Saturday night!
Detective  Sure, Jimmy, sure.

Answers
T, T, F, T, F, F

B Pair work
- Ss retell the story in pairs.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about past activities

A
- Ss check (✓) the things they did individually yesterday. Then they add two more things.

B Group work
- Model the conversation with a S. Then Ss ask and answer questions about the things in part A in small groups.
3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to give and follow simple directions

A
- Explain the task. Ss create a neighborhood. They choose five places from the list and add them to My map.
- For plurals, tell Ss to be sure to draw two places on their maps.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Pair work
- Read the instructions aloud. Ask two Ss to model the example conversation. Explain that Student A draws one gas station on the corner of Center Street and First Avenue and another gas station on Center Street across from the park on My partner’s map. Point out that Ss cannot look at their partners’ maps.
- Ss take turns asking and answering questions in pairs.
- Tell Ss to ask any additional questions to find the exact location of each place (e.g., Is it next to the grocery store?).
- Ss then compare maps. Ask: “Did you draw the places in the correct locations?”

4 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to describe a neighborhood

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is a visitor in Student B’s neighborhood. Student A asks questions and Student B answers them.
- Model the example conversation with a S.

- Go over the topics in the box. Explain or elicit any new vocabulary.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again.
- Go around the class and check Ss’ use of how many, how much, and quantifiers.

5 WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

What does she look like?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–6

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe people’s physical characteristics

A

• Books closed. Explain that Ss will learn ways to describe what people look like. Ask questions about different Ss: “Is he tall or short? Does she have straight or curly hair?”

• Option: Ask Ss to bring pictures of friends or family members to class. Alternatively, bring magazine pictures of people to class.

• Books open. Focus Ss’ attention on the expressions and pictures. Ask them to circle any words they don’t know.

• Ask different Ss to read the expressions. Give help with pronunciation as needed. Point out that handsome usually refers to men and pretty to women, but good-looking describes both men and women. Also point out that adverbs such as fairly and pretty can modify the strength of different descriptions (e.g., fairly short, pretty tall).

• Write these headings across the top of the board:
  Hair  Age  Looks  Height  Other

• Ss work in groups. Ask Ss to brainstorm at least three more expressions to describe people. Then ask a S from each group to write their expressions under the correct headings on the board.

Possible answers

Hair: light brown hair, dark brown hair, gray hair, medium length hair, wavy hair, a ponytail
Age: ten, in his or her teens/twenties/thirties, old
Looks: thin, heavy, cute, beautiful, gorgeous
Height: rather short, quite tall
Other: blue eyes, green eyes, dark eyes, brown eyes

TIP

Don’t give your Ss too much new vocabulary. If they already know the presented vocabulary, add more. If not, add just a few extra words they want to know.

B Pair work

• Ss choose at least four expressions to describe themselves and their partners. They complete the chart individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

• Ask two Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other expressions for agreeing or disagreeing (e.g., That’s true. No way!). Write them on the board.

• Ss compare charts in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

• Option: Ss work with different partners. This time, they sit back-to-back and describe each other from memory.

For a new way to review, categorize, or expand on the vocabulary in this Word Power, try Mind Mapping – download it from the website.
CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions to describe a person in a conversation

A [CD 2, Track 30]
- Ss cover the text. Ask Ss to describe the people in the picture.
- Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. Who are Justin and Lauren talking about?
  2. How does Justin describe her?
  3. How old is she?
- Play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Justin’s new girlfriend 2. She’s really smart and pretty. She’s tall and has beautiful brown hair. 3. Justin doesn’t know.)
- Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- 5 foot 10: 178 centimeters
- rude: not polite

- Draw this chart on the board:

<table>
<thead>

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer individually. Then elicit the answer.

Audio script
Carlos Thanks, Erin. We can plan something for tomorrow.
Erin Great! Have you been to a Cuban restaurant yet?
Carlos No, I haven’t. But I’ve heard Cuban food is delicious. Let’s have lunch at a Cuban restaurant tomorrow.
Erin Good idea. I know a great little place on Orange Blossom Trail.
Carlos Cool! Maybe in the evening we can go listen to some jazz. Do you know a good club?
Erin Sure, I’ve been to several. We can go to Casey’s on Central. I’ve been there a couple of times. It’s really good.
Carlos OK! Sounds like a plan!

Answers
They plan to have lunch at a Cuban restaurant and listen to jazz in the evening.
Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions using the present perfect with regular and irregular past participles; use already and yet with the present perfect in responses

Present perfect
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 64.
  Ask: “What has Carlos done in Orlando?” Elicit Ss’ answers and write them on the board:
  been to three theme parks.
  been to many stores.
  been to the Kennedy Space Center.
• Ask: “When did he do these things?” (Answer: sometime in the past week)
• Explain that these sentences are in the present perfect. We use this tense with past actions when the exact time is not important.
• Draw this time line on the board:
  CARLOS ARRIVED theme park NOW

  Explain that Carlos has been to a theme park sometime in the past week. We don’t know the exact time, and it’s not important.
• Say: “Carlos said he’s been to three theme parks this week.” Draw two more X’s on the time line and say: “Carlos has been to a theme park three times this week.”
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit or explain the rules for forming present perfect statements and yes/no questions:
  Subject + has/have + past participle.
  Has/Have + subject + past participle?
• Point out the placement of yet and already and explain the meaning. Yet goes at the end of present perfect questions and at the end of negative statements. Already goes before the past participle and means “earlier than expected.”
• Play the audio program and answer any questions.

A
• Explain the task and read the examples. Elicit adverbs of frequency such as once, twice, and a couple of times. Then ask different Ss and elicit their answers.
• Call on Ss to read the regular and irregular past participles. Then point out the list of irregular past participles in the appendix.

B
• Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.
• Ss complete the task individually. Encourage Ss to use contractions in their answers. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then elicit Ss’ answers.

Answers
1. A: Have you done much exercise this week?  B: Yes, I’ve already been to Pilates class four times.
2. A: Have you played any sports this month?  B: No, I haven’t had the time.
3. A: How many movies have you been to this month?  B: Actually, I haven’t seen any yet.
4. A: Have you been to any interesting parties recently?  B: No, I haven’t gone to any parties for quite a while.
5. A: Have you cooked any food this week?  B: Yes, I’ve already made dinner twice.
6. A: How many times have you gone out to eat this week?  B: I’ve eaten at fast-food restaurants a couple of times.

C Pair work
• Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in part B in pairs.

End of Cycle 1
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.
4 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present perfect and simple past in a conversation about past experiences

A [CD 2, Track 43]
- Set the scene. Carlos and Erin are discussing where to eat dinner. Elicit ideas and vocabulary from the picture.
- Write this focus question on the board:
  What does Carlos learn about Erin?
- Books closed. Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: She went to college in Miami.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try the Moving Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 44]
- Explain the task and read the focus question. Encourage Ss to make predictions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. Then elicit the answer from the class.

Audio script
Carlos So, what would you like to do this afternoon?
Erin Let’s see . . . Have you ever been close to an alligator?
Carlos What? No, I haven’t! Why?
Erin There’s a new alligator park that I haven’t been to yet. I’ve heard it’s very exciting! You can see alligators up close and take pictures with them.
Carlos OK. Just let me finish my sandwich. Maybe this will be my last meal. . . .
Erin Haha! Wow. I’ve never seen you this scared before.

Answer
They decide to go to an alligator park.

5 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask present perfect questions about experiences and answer in the present perfect and simple past; use the present perfect with for and since to describe past experiences

A [CD 2, Track 45]
Present perfect
- Write these questions on the board:
  1. Has Carlos ever had a Cuban sandwich?
  2. Has Erin ever eaten rice and beans?
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation in Exercise 4 and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. No, he hasn’t. 2. Yes, she has.)
- Ask a few Have you ever questions around the class (e.g., “Have you ever eaten a Cuban sandwich? Have you ever eaten rice and beans?”). Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Write this on the board:
  Have you ever eaten a Cuban sandwich?
  (No.) I’ve never eaten a Cuban sandwich.
- Point out that ever means “at any time in your life.” We use it in present perfect questions, but not in answers. Never means “not ever,” and we use it in present perfect statements.

Simple past
- Ask: “When did Erin eat rice and beans?” Then elicit possible answers (e.g., She ate it several years ago/as a college student.).

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Then Ss complete it in pairs.
[CD 2, Track 46]

For and since

- Write this on the board:

  I lived in Miami for four years.
  I’ve lived in Miami for four years.

- Elicit or explain the difference. The first sentence is in the simple past. It means “I lived in Miami in the past, but I don’t live in Miami now.” The second sentence is in the present perfect. It means “I moved to Miami four years ago, and I still live in Miami now.”

- Focus Ss’ attention on the two expression boxes. Ask: “When do we use for? When do we use since?”

- Elicit or explain that we use for with periods of time and since with points in time. Elicit other expressions that go with for (e.g., a day/a week/a year), and since (yesterday/last week/2 P.M.).

- Play the audio program.

Answers

1. for  2. for  3. since  4. for  5. for  6. since  7. for  8. since

- For more practice with for and since, play Run For It! – download it from the website.

D Pair work

- Explain the task and ask the first question. Elicit different answers with for and since.

- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and note any errors. Then write the errors on the board and correct them with the class.

6 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by linking final /t/ and /d/ sounds in verbs with the vowels that follow

A [CD 2, Track 47]

- Explain the task. Focus Ss’ attention on the linked sounds in the example conversations. Then play the audio program.

B Pair work

- Explain and model the task. Elicit the linked sounds in the answers (i.e., cut it, tasted it, tried it, lost it, looked at it). Ask Ss to repeat the linked sounds.

- Ss work in pairs. They ask and answer the questions. Go around the class and check their use of linked sounds.

7 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about recent events

[CD 2, Track 48]

- Ask: “What’s the most interesting thing you’ve done recently?” Elicit Ss’ answers.

- Set the scene and explain the task. Ss listen to find out where Nicole went, what she did there, and whether Tyler had been there before.

- Play the audio program. Ss complete the first column of the chart individually. While they listen, draw the chart on the board. Then elicit the answers and ask Ss to write the answers on the board.

- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the second and third columns of the chart individually. Then elicit the answers.

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. While they work, draw the chart on the board. Then go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Allow Ss to use their dictionaries.
- Elicit Ss’ answers. Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board.

Answers
- eat sushi/octopus/lobster/cake
- drink iced coffee/chocolate soda/iced tea/ginger ale

- For more practice with these collocations, play Concentration – download it from the website. Ss match each verb and a phrase to make collocations.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about past experiences

A Group work
- Write these expressions on the board: Really? Wow! I’m impressed! You’re kidding! Point out that we use these expressions to show interest or surprise. Model how to say them. Ss repeat.
- Option: Ss find more examples of responses in previous conversations. Practice them as a class.
- Explain the activity and model the example conversation with two Ss. Focus Ss’ attention on the picture and ask: “Where was she?” Encourage Ss to make guesses.
- Elicit other follow-up questions and write them on the board.
- Ss complete the activity in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.
- Option: Ss get one point for each follow-up question they ask. The S in each group with the most points wins.

B Class activity
- Ss share things they learned about their classmates with the class.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an email to someone one hasn’t seen recently

A
- Ask the class: “Who haven’t you seen in a long time?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Explain the task. Then Ss read the example email silently.
- Ss write their emails individually. Remind Ss to check their use of present perfect and simple past.

B Pair work

INTERCHANGE 10

See page T-125 for teaching notes.

End of Cycle 2
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: “What did you learn in Units 9 and 10?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
  1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
  2. Ask Ss: “What do you need to practice?” Then assign exercises based on their answers.
  3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask about and describe a person’s appearance

- Read the instructions aloud and explain the task. Student A makes a report about a lost classmate and Student B completes the Missing person report. Point out that Student A should not give the name of the classmate. Then Student B guesses the identity of the lost classmate.
- Go over the information in the report. Elicit different things Ss can write in the report.
- Write this example conversation on the board:
  A: Excuse me, Officer. Can you help me? One of my classmates is lost.
  B: Sure. Um, is the person a man or a woman?
  A: A woman.
  B: OK. I need to know her age. How old is she?
  A: I think she’s 19 or 20.
  B: All right. And how tall is she?

Model the conversation with a S. The S is person A and you are person B. Whenever the S gives additional information, pretend to write it in the report.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Then Student B looks around the room and identifies the lost classmate.
- Set a time limit of about three minutes. Then Ss change roles. Go around the class and give help as needed.

TIP
If you don’t have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

2 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to identify people by describing what they’re wearing, what they’re doing, or where they are

A
- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask a S to read the example sentences.

B Pair work
- Write the names Demi, Adele, Allen, and Mia and Derek on the board.
- Books closed. Explain the task. Ss ask questions about the people on the board in pairs (e.g., Which one is Allen?). They answer using their memory of the picture. If they have difficulty, they can look at their sentences.
- Model the example conversation with a few Ss. Elicit different ways Ss can answer.
- Ss complete the task.
3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to use the present perfect to ask and answer questions about whether things have been done

A
- Explain the task. Ss imagine they are preparing for three situations. Read the situations and the example.

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one’s ability to understand descriptions of experiences; demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about one’s experiences

A [CD 2, Track 49]
- Set the scene. Alyssa has just met a friend in San Diego and is talking about things she has done.
- Go over the chart and explain any new vocabulary. Then play the audio program. Ss complete the task.

Audio script
Matthew Alyssa? What are you doing here in San Diego?
Alyssa Matthew! What a surprise meeting you here! Actually, I’m here because I won a contest, and the prize was one week at the Seaside Resort Hotel, right on the beach.
Matthew Wow, that’s fantastic! Just one night in that hotel costs over $400. Did the contest pay for your flight to San Diego?
Alyssa Actually, I’m afraid of flying. I’ve never flown on a plane. But I didn’t need to pay for the train fare from Los Angeles to San Diego and back.
Matthew That’s great.
Alyssa Yeah, it is. Oh, and I think I saw Mario Lopez here yesterday. You know, the actor.
Matthew Maybe you did. He was born here, you know.

Answers
won a contest, stayed in an expensive hotel, gone windsurfing, gotten sunburned, posted on a blog

- Ss take turns asking about the events in part A in small groups.

5 SURVEY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to use the present perfect, for, and since to describe one’s experiences

A
- Ss complete the My answers column individually. Point out that they should use for or since.

B Class activity
- Model the task. Ask several Ss the first question until one gives the same answer. Explain that you will write that S’s name in the Classmate’s name column.
- Ss go around the room and complete the task.

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

Adverbs before adjectives
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 72. Ask: “What has Ron heard about Punta Cana?” (Answer: It’s really beautiful.) Then ask: “How far is it from Santo Domingo?” (Answer: It’s not too far.)
• Explain that sometimes we use adverbs like too, really, and pretty to modify adjectives.
• Ask Ss to find more examples of adverbs that modify adjectives in the Conversation and underline them (e.g., really cool, really clear, pretty reasonable, very interesting). Elicit other adverbs.
• Focus Ss’ attention on the adverbs box. Point out that they are organized from the most to the least.
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out the position of the adverb and elicit the rule: X is adverb + adjective.
• Tell Ss to look at the position of but, though, and however. Ask: “What punctuation comes before each conjunction?” (Answer: a comma) Point out that and but connect two complete sentences.
• Play the audio program.
• Option: Focus Ss’ attention on part B of the Word Power on page 72. Ss describe a place again, using adverbs + adjectives.

A
• Explain the task. Ss match the questions with the answers.

   Man Do you like those kinds of things?
   Abby Oh, yes. I love nature. I think it’s extremely beautiful. And the fresh food from the farms is delicious.
   Man Is it an expensive town?
   Abby No, it’s very cheap.
   Man It sounds like a great place.
   Abby It was OK growing up, but I couldn’t live there now.
   Man Really? Why?
   Abby It’s too quiet for me. I’ve lived in the city for a long time now. I like to hear the sounds of cars and people and things around me.

2. Woman Where did you grow up, Christopher?
   Christopher I grew up in a city. So I guess you could say my hometown isn’t really a town – it’s a city. For me, it’s a really stressful place, though.
   Woman Why do you say that?
   Christopher Well, for one thing, it’s too crowded. The streets and the subways are full of people day and night.
   Woman Really? Is it a polluted place?
   Christopher I wouldn’t say that. But it’s not very clean.
   Woman Like many cities, I guess.

It’s important to get rest.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–6

1. SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: identify and discuss common health problems

- Books closed. Elicit common health problems from the class and write them on the board.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot. Explain any new vocabulary, using gestures if needed.
- Explain the tasks. Ss complete the tasks in small groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.

2. CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive in a conversation about advice for a health problem

A [CD 3, Track 14]

- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit or explain vocabulary. Ask: “What health problem do you think Keith has? How do you know?”
- Play the first part of the audio program. Ss listen to check the answer. (Answer: a cold)
- Write this focus question on the board: What does Mila suggest for Keith’s cold?
- Play the audio program and ask Ss to listen for the answer. Elicit the answer. (Answer: garlic tea)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
get some rest: relax or sleep
Have you taken anything for your cold?: Have you taken any medicine?
chop up: cut into small pieces
Yuck!: an expression of dislike, especially about food

- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

TIP
To encourage Ss to look at each other while practicing Conversations, ask them to stand up and face each other. This also makes the conversation more active and natural.

B [CD 3, Track 15]

- Read the task and focus question. Ask Ss to make predictions. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers individually. Then elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Keith [coughs]
Woman That cold sounds pretty bad, Keith!
Keith Yeah, it is, Mrs. Gray. Don’t get too close.
Woman Well, you know, it’s important to drink a lot of liquids. Can I get you some orange juice? I have some in the refrigerator.
Keith Oh, OK. That sounds good. Thanks a lot.

2.
Man How’s that cold, Keith?
Keith Not so good. [sneezes] I’ve still got it.
Man Oh, too bad. Well, listen, it’s a good idea to take some cold medicine. And you should take a long, hot bath.
Keith You’re right. Maybe I should. Thanks for the advice.

Answers

The woman suggests orange juice. The man suggests cold medicine. He also says Keith should take a long, hot bath.
3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask for and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive

[CD 3, Track 16]

- Books closed. Write these sentences on the board:

  You should get some rest.
  You should drink garlic tea.

- Point out that these sentences give suggestions with should. We can also give suggestions using an adjective or a noun followed by an infinitive. Cross out the words You should and replace them with It's important to and It's helpful to.

- Books open. Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming adjective or noun + infinitive structures: It's important/helpful/a good idea to + verb.

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 78. Ask Ss to underline the two examples of adjective or noun + infinitive structures.

- Play the audio program.

- Option: Present additional positive adjective or noun + infinitive structures (e.g., It's useful to . . . , It's best to . . . , It's essential to . . .) and also negative infinitives (e.g., It's important not to . . . , It's best not to . . .).

A

- Explain the task. Ss read the problems and advice silently. Use the picture or gestures to explain new vocabulary (e.g., a sore throat, a fever, a toothache, a burn).

- Read the first problem. Elicit different pieces of advice.

- Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

1. c, e, f, h
2. a, c, i
3. d, f, h
4. a, b, h
5. a, c, h, i
6. a, c, h, i, j
7. a, b, c, h, i, j
8. g, i

B Group work

- Explain the task. Then model the example conversation with two Ss.

- Ss take turns giving advice in small groups. Go around the class and check their use of adjective or noun + infinitive structures.

TIP

Use your fingers to help Ss self-correct their errors. For example, if the error is in the fourth word in a sentence, show four fingers and point to the fourth finger.

C

- Explain the task and elicit endings for the first example. Write them on the board.

- Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

For a new way to practice the vocabulary in this Grammar Focus, try Mime – download it from the website.

4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by reducing to in conversation

[CD 3, Track 17]

- Model the reduction of to. Then play the audio program. Ss listen for the reduction of to.

- Play the audio program again. Ss take turns practicing the conversation in pairs.

TIP

If you are concerned about your pronunciation and intonation, always use the audio program to present material.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They ask for and give advice using their sentences from part C of Exercise 3. Ask a few pairs of Ss to model the task.

- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check their reduction of to. Then elicit the most popular advice for each problem.
5 INTERCHANGE 12

See page T-127 for teaching notes.

6 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: ask for and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive

A Group work
• Books closed. Ask: “What should you do when you forget someone’s name?” Elicit Ss’ answers, encouraging them to use should, adjective + infinitive, or noun + infinitive.
• Books open. Explain the task and ask different Ss to read the example situations. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Then ask three Ss to read the example conversation.
• Ss discuss the situations in small groups. Go around the class and write down any errors you hear.

B Class activity
• Read the question to the class. Elicit Ss’ answers. Encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use can, could, and may for requests and suggestions in a conversation about suggestions for health problems

A [CD 3, Track 18]
- Books closed. Ask: “Where do you think the speakers are?” Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answer. Elicit the answer. (Answer: a pharmacy)
- Books open. Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Then ask: “What problems do you think the man has?” Encourage Ss to guess. Then play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers: a backache, sore muscles, a bad cough (his wife), insomnia)
- Ask: “What four things does the pharmacist suggest?” Play the audio program again. Ss listen for the answers. Elicit the answers. (Answers: a heating pad, cream, cough drops, chamomile tea)
- Option: Ss work in two groups. Group A listens for the problems the man talks about. Group B listens for the things the pharmacist suggests. Then they share information.

Customer Oh, and where is the pain medication?
Pharmacist Right over there, near the door.
Customer Thanks a lot.

Answer

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask for advice and give suggestions using can, could, and may

[CD 3, Track 20]
- Explain that it’s impolite to say Give me or I want when asking for things in a store. People usually use modal verbs such as can, could, and may.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation in Exercise 8. Ask: “How did Mr. Peters ask for things?” Ask Ss to underline the examples. (Answers: Could I have . . .? Can you suggest . . .? May I have . . .? . . . what do you suggest?)
- Focus Ss’ attention on the example questions in the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Point out that the first question (Can/May I help you?) is an offer of help. The other three questions are requests for help. Explain that people can use can, could, and may to make a request, but may is the most formal.
- Elicit the rule for questions with modals: Modal + subject + verb?
- Focus Ss’ attention on the three ways to make suggestions in the second column. Ask Ss to find similar examples in the Conversation in Exercise 8 and underline them twice.
- Play the audio program.
- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.
- Ss circle the correct modal verbs individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.

Answers
1. A: Can I help you?
   B: What do you suggest for dry skin?
   A: Why don’t you try this lotion? It’s excellent.
   B: OK. I’ll take it.
2. A: May I have something for itchy eyes?
   B: Sure. You could try a bottle of eyedrops.
3. A: Could I have a box of bandages, please?
   B: Here you are.
   A: And what do you suggest for insomnia?
   B: You should try this herbal tea. It’s very relaxing.
   A: OK. Thanks.

- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

For a new way to practice the conversations in this Grammar Focus, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website. Ss replace the health problems and suggestions with ideas of their own.
10  LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for specific information about health problems and health care products

[CD 3, Track 21]

- Explain that four people are going to talk about their problems and someone will offer advice. Draw Ss' attention to the chart. Then play the audio program. Ss listen for the problems and write them in the chart.
- Play the audio again and have Ss write the advice in the correct column.

Audio script

1. John
   Oh! I just know I’m going to fail!
   Samantha
   What’s bothering you, John?
   John
   Oh, sorry, Samantha. I’m really stressed. I have my final exam in math tomorrow.
   Samantha
   Don’t worry, John. You’ll do fine on the test. For now, I think you should take a break. Let’s get some ice cream. I’ll buy it.

2. Ashley
   Those cookies smell so good!
   Man
   I know, they do. But they’re not ready yet.
   Ashley
   Not ready? I’m so hungry! And now the whole apartment smells like delicious cookies. Ooh! My stomach hurts!
   Man
   I’m sorry, Ashley. I made a nice salad, too. It’s in the refrigerator. You should have some.

3. Brandon
   I’m really happy about my report. It’s really good.

4. Don
   Rachel? Rachel?
   Rachel
   Huh? Oh, sorry, Don. I was thinking about my vacation. I leave tomorrow for Gramado in Brazil, you know.
   Don
   Oh, right, that’s a beautiful town. I’m sure you’re excited.
   Rachel
   I really am. I’m so excited, it’s difficult to work.
   Don
   Well, it’s already 3:00. You should go home now and start getting ready.
   Rachel
   Really? Thanks, Don!

- Ss go over their answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

A

- Ask: “Do you ever feel stressed? What can you do to help relax?” Elicit ideas from the class.
- Ss read the blog post suggestions silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

B

- Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually in class or for homework.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Then Ss complete the task in small groups. Groups share their most interesting suggestions with the class.

It's important to get rest.
Learning Objective: skim for the main idea and read for details in an article about natural medicine

- Focus Ss’ attention on the article. Tell Ss to look at the title and pictures. Elicit Ss’ ideas about what they think they will learn about in the article.

A

- Explain the task. Tell Ss to skim the article for the answer. Point out that they shouldn’t worry about any new vocabulary.
- Allow about three minutes for Ss to complete the task. Then Ss check the best description of the article. Elicit the answer.

Answer

The article gives information and facts.

B

- Present or ask Ss to look up key vocabulary from the reading.

TIP

To save time, have Ss look up the vocabulary in a dictionary before class. To encourage peer teaching, assign each S a few words to look up. Then have them teach each other the words in class.

Vocabulary

- rain forest: a tropical forest
- research: scientific discoveries
- appointment: a scheduled meeting with someone, often a dentist or doctor
- remedy: a treatment or substance that cures an illness
- village: a group of houses and shops that is smaller than a town
- gel: a thick substance that is part liquid and is clear, unlike cream

- Explain the task. Then answer the first question and identify the paragraph as a class.
- Ss complete the task individually and compare answers in pairs. Go around the class and check their answers. Help Ss with pronunciation as needed.

Answers

- Option: Ss read the article again and underline any words they still don’t know. Explain the words.

C Group work

- Ss discuss the question in small groups. Go around the class and help with vocabulary as needed. Then elicit Ss’ answers. (Possible answers: They’re a source of oxygen, wood, rubber, and food. They’re a home for many animals.)

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

• Ask: “What did you learn in Units 11 and 12?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
• Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

• Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
  1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
  2. Ask Ss: “What do you need to practice?” Then assign exercises based on their answers.
  3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to listen to and understand a description of a city and compare it to one's hometown using adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions

A [CD 3, Track 22]

• Set the scene and explain the task. Megan is talking about Honolulu, her hometown. Ss listen and write the size of the city, weather, prices of things, and what she says about Waikiki Beach in their chart.
• Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart.

Audio script

<table>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Megan</td>
<td>Oh, yes. It is. It’s very comfortable the whole year. Warm, but not too hot.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Man    | I’ve heard that Honolulu is an expensive city. Is that true? |
| Megesn | Well, yes, it is pretty expensive. Rents are high and food is expensive, too. That’s because everything comes in from the mainland. |
| Man    | What’s that beach in Honolulu? |
| Megan  | Well, Waikiki Beach is really famous. That’s where all the tourists go. |
| Man    | Yeah, that’s it. Waikiki Beach. |

• Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. size of city not too big
2. weather very comfortable; warm but not too hot
3. prices of things pretty expensive
4. Waikiki Beach really famous

B

• Explain the task. Ss write sentences comparing Honolulu with their hometowns. Point out the conjunction, adjectives, and adverbs in the example.
• Ss write sentences individually. Then they compare their sentences in pairs.

2 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one’s ability to ask questions about hometowns; demonstrate one’s ability to describe one’s hometown and give suggestions for sightseeing

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is planning to visit Student B’s hometown and asks questions about it. Student B answers the questions.
• Go over the possible questions. Model the example conversation with a S.

• Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again. Go around the class and give help as needed.
3 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask for and give suggestions and advice

A Group work
- Explain the task and model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Ss write advice and remedies for the problems individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

- Ss compare their ideas in small groups. Encourage Ss to use expressions of advice (e.g., it's useful to, it's helpful to, you should).
- Go around the room and check Ss’ use of adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive.

B Group work
- Read the questions and explain the task.
- Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Encourage them to add follow-up questions.

4 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to give advice

A Group work
- Set the scene. The three problems are from an advice column.
- Ss read the problems silently. Then elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

- Explain the task. In small groups, Ss suggest advice for each problem and choose the best advice. Model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Ss complete the task.

B Class activity
- Ask different Ss to share their group’s advice.

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again.
  Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”

- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.

In Unit 13, students agree and disagree about food preferences and order food in a restaurant. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to agree and disagree about food preferences using so, too, neither, and either. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to use would and will to order food at a restaurant.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss food and food preferences

- Books closed. Write these foods on the board:
  - apple pie
  - ice-cream cone
  - chocolate
  - pasta
  - french fries
  - the sandwich
  - hamburger
  - sushi
- Ask Ss to guess where each food item is from.
- Books open. Ss check their answers with the Snapshot.
- Ask different Ss to read the facts. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use so, too, neither, and either in a conversation about deciding where to go for dinner

A [CD 3, Track 23]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Simon and Kristin are discussing where to go for dinner. Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. What two kinds of food do they talk about?
  2. What kind of food do they decide to eat?
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Thai and Japanese 2. Japanese)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Audio script

Simon Wow, that was delicious, but I’m full!
Kristin So am I. I’m in the mood for something relaxing. What about a movie?
Simon Good idea. What do you want to see?
Kristin Anything, really. We can see what’s playing.
Simon OK, but no romance! I promised to see the new Ryan Gosling movie with my sister. One romance movie is enough.
Kristin [chuckles] You’re a good brother.
Simon It’s her birthday next week. That’s the only reason why!

Answers

They decide to see a movie. They don’t want to see a romance movie.

B [CD 3, Track 24]

- Explain the task and read the focus questions. Then play the audio program. Elicit the answers.

Vocabulary

- I’m not in the mood for: I don’t really want
  - a bit: a little
  - spicy: with a hot or strong flavor, like pepper or curry

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Then ask Ss to role-play the conversation for the class.

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It with Feeling! – download it from the website.
Learning Objective: agree and disagree about food preferences using so, too, neither, and either

[CD 3, Track 25]
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Ask: “Which statements are positive? Which statements are negative?” (Answers: The top three statements are positive (I’m crazy about/I can/I like), and the bottom three statements are negative (I’m not in the mood/I can’t stand/I don’t like).)

So and too
- Focus Ss’ attention on the first three responses in the second column. Point out that we can use so or too to agree with a positive statement.
- Write these responses on the board:

  So am I.
  So can I.
  So do I.

  Ask: “When do we use each response?” Elicit or explain the rule. (Answer: The verb in each response matches that of the sentence before it.)
- Focus Ss’ attention on the difference between so and too. Point out that so is at the beginning of the response and too is at the end:

  So + am/can/do + l.
  I + am/can/do, + too.

- Ask Ss to find responses in the third column that disagree with positive statements. (Answers: Oh, I’m not./Really? I can’t./Oh, I don’t.)
- Play the audio program for the first column.
- Option: Drill So am I, So can I, or So do I responses. Read a list of ten positive statements to the class (e.g., I am smart. I can speak English. I live near here.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

Neither and either
- Focus Ss’ attention on the last three responses in the second column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rules for agreeing with a negative statement:

  Neither + am/can/do + l.
  I’m not/I can’t/I don’t + either.

- Point out different ways to disagree with negative statements (e.g., Really? I am./Oh, I love it!/Oh, I like it a lot.).
- Play the audio program for the second column.
- Option: Drill Neither am I, Neither can I, or Neither do I responses. Read a list of ten negative statements to the class (e.g., I’m not hungry. I can’t cook French food./I don’t like fish ice cream.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

Possible answers
1. Neither am I./I’m not either.
2. So can I./I can, too.
4. Neither can I./I can’t either.
5. Neither do I./I don’t either.
6. So am I./I am, too.
7. So am I./I am, too.
8. Neither do I./I don’t either.
10. Neither can I./I can’t either.

Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns reading the statements in part A and responding with their own opinions.
- Go around the class and check Ss’ use of grammar.
- For more practice, play Concentration – download it from the website. Ss match cards with the same meaning (e.g., So do I. and I do, too.).

C
- Elicit different ways to say I like and I don’t like. Write them on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Like</th>
<th>don’t like</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I really like</td>
<td>I don’t really like</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I’m in the mood for</td>
<td>I’m not in the mood for</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I like . . . very much</td>
<td>I don’t like . . . very much</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I’m crazy about</td>
<td>I’m not crazy about</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I love</td>
<td>I hate</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Explain the task. Model the first example by writing two sentences on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually. Don’t ask Ss to compare statements at this time. They will do this in Exercise 4.
PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when responding with so, too, either, and neither

A [CD 3, Track 26]
- Explain the task. Then play the audio program. Point out the stress by clapping your hands on the last word of each response.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and practice.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Then Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss’ pronunciation.

Cycle 2, Exercises 5–12

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: categorize food items

A
- Explain the task. Explain what the different food categories are and any new vocabulary.
- Ss complete the chart individually.
- Draw the chart on the board. Ask different Ss to complete the chart.

Answers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fruit</th>
<th>Vegetables</th>
<th>Grains</th>
<th>Meat</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td>hot dog</td>
<td>ceviche</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Note: Possible answers are italicized.)

B Group work
- Read the questions and explain the task.
- Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Encourage them to add follow-up questions.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use would and will in a conversation to order food at a restaurant

A [CD 3, Track 27]
- Ss cover the text. Elicit ideas and vocabulary from the picture. Ask: "What kind of restaurant is this? What kinds of food do they serve?"
- Set the scene. A server is taking a customer’s order. Write this summary sentence on the board:

  The customer orders a veggie burger / chicken burger and cream of potato soup / onion soup, and an iced tea / lemonade.

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the correct answers. Ask different Ss to circle the correct answers on the board. (Answers: veggie burger, onion soup, lemonade)
- Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 28]
- Explain the task and read the focus question. Then play the audio program. Elicit the answer.

Audio script

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Server</th>
<th>Are you ready to order?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Man</td>
<td>Yes, I think so . . . I’d like the chicken curry, please.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Server</td>
<td>Would you like today’s special, chicken curry and mango salad?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Man</td>
<td>Yes, I’ll have the curry and salad, please.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Server</td>
<td>OK. Anything to drink?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Man</td>
<td>Yeah. I’ll have a large orange juice, please.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Server</td>
<td>And how about some dessert? We have pie, cake, and ice cream.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Man</td>
<td>No dessert for me, thanks.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answers

He orders chicken curry and a mango salad. To drink, he orders a large orange juice.
GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use would and will to order food at a restaurant

[CD 3, Track 29]

Modal verbs would and will

- Write these sentences on the board:
  1. And do you want soup or salad with your burger?
  2. And do you want anything to drink?
  3. I want the onion soup, please.
  4. I want a lemonade, please.

Explain that people don’t usually say want in formal situations.

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 88. Ss find and underline sentences and questions with the same meaning as those on the board. Ask different Ss to write them on the board. (Answers: 1. And would you like soup or salad with your burger? 2. And would you like anything to drink? 3. I’ll have the onion soup, please. 4. I’d like a lemonade, please.)

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the structure for making Wh- and yes/no questions with would:
  Wh-question + would + subject + verb?
  Would + subject + verb?

Point out that the word would does not have strong stress.

- Elicit or explain that we can order in a restaurant with I’d like or I’ll have. Point out the contractions. Play the audio program.

- Explain the task and model the first two lines of the conversation. Ss complete the conversation individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.

- Go over answers by asking different Ss to read the conversation.

Answers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Server</th>
<th>Customer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What would you like to order?</td>
<td>I’ll have the spicy fish.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Would you like salad or potatoes?</td>
<td>I’d like potatoes, please.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OK. And would you like anything to drink?</td>
<td>No, that’s all for now, thanks.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Would you like dessert?</td>
<td>Yes, I’d like ice cream.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What flavor would you like?</td>
<td>Hmm, I’ll have mint chocolate chip, please.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- For a new way to practice the conversations in this Grammar Focus, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website. Ss replace the food and drink items with their own ideas.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: use would and will to order food at a restaurant

- Ss work in pairs. Set the scene and explain the task. Student A is a customer in a coffee shop. Student B is a server. Student A orders lunch and Student B takes the order. If possible, Student A sits at a table and Student B stands. Model the pronunciation of the food items if needed.

- Model taking the order with a S. Show how to add follow-up questions (e.g., Would you like dressing on your salad? Would you like anything else?). Ss complete the role play in pairs.

- Provide useful feedback. Then ask Ss to change roles and use their own information. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.

- Option: Ss complete the role play in small groups. One S is the server and the other Ss are customers.

TIP

To make role plays more authentic, bring props to class. For example, in a restaurant role play you can bring real menus, pens, and notepads.

- For a new way to practice this Role Play, try Time Out! – download it from the website.
LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about a food order

A [CD 3, Track 30]

• Set the scene and explain the task.
• Play the audio program. Ss fill in the chart individually.
• Ss compare answers in pairs. Play the audio program again if needed. Then go over answers with the class.

For a new way to practice this Listening, try Prediction Bingo – download it from the website.

Luis Let me see. Maybe it's in the bottom of the bag... No, I don't see any cream.

Steven Well, that's all right. I think we have some in the office kitchen.

Luis Oh, that's good. And finally, a piece of chocolate cake. That's everything.

Sarah Oh, but I ordered a slice of blueberry pie.

Luis Hmm. It's not on the receipt. Sorry, Sarah! I think I forgot to order it.

Sarah Oh well, that's OK.

Steven Would you like some of my chocolate cake, Sarah? This piece is huge.

Sarah Really? Thanks, Steven! That's so nice of you.

Answers

The missing items are Steven's cream and Sarah's blueberry pie.
Learning Objectives: scan for specific information; make inferences from context in a reading about tipping in the United States

- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask: “Where are these people? What are they doing?” Elicit Ss’ answers and explain new vocabulary. (Answers: They are customers at a restaurant. The customers are paying for the meal/paying the bill/paying the check.)

- Explain that this article is about tipping around the world. Ss read the first paragraph silently. Ask: “What is a ‘tip’?” (Possible answer: extra money you pay to say thank you)

A

- Explain the task and read the questions. Ss scan the article for the answers.
- Go over answers with the class. Ask: “What helped you find the answers?” (Possible answers: Scanning for 15–20% and negative words like “isn’t”)

Answers

| 15–20% tip on food: United States |
| Tipping unnecessary: Japan |

- Option: Ask Ss if they ever tip at home or when traveling.

  For a new way to teach this Reading, try Running Dictation – download it from the website. Use the first paragraph only.

B

- Explain the task. Encourage Ss to guess the answers by choosing the meaning of each word that best fits the sentence in the article.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Go over answers with the class. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

| slang: informal spoken language |
| service: help that someone gives a customer |
| bellhop: hotel employee who carries your bags for you |

Answers

1. change
2. need
3. regular pay for a job
4. difficult to understand
5. usual
6. giving more than enough

C

- Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually and compare answers in pairs.
- Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board. Then ask the class to correct the answers if needed.

Answers

1. not checked – You leave about 11–12%.
2. checked
3. not checked – You don’t usually tip in Japan.
4. checked
5. checked

D Group work

- Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Then they share their information with the class.

In Unit 14, students describe and compare different places in the world and describe temperatures, distances, and measurements. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe geography using comparative and superlative forms of adjectives. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe distances and measurements, and ask and answer questions with how.

14 It’s the coldest city!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–7

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: give examples of types of geographical features

A

- Option: Bring in a world map, globe, or atlas to class.
- Explain that this unit is about world geography.
- Explain the task. Ss label the picture with words from the list. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss compare their pictures in pairs. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary or pronunciation.

Answers

1. i 2. e 3. f 4. d 5. l 6. h 7. a 8. j 9. c 10. b 11. k 12. g

B Pair work

- Ss brainstorm to see how many words they can think of that relate to geography. Ask different Ss to write their words on the board under these headings:
  - Water-related words
  - Land-related words
  - Climate-related words
  - Other
- Go over the words and ask Ss to copy them into their vocabulary notebooks.

Possible answers

Water-related: sea, stream, coast, pond, coral reef
Land-related: continent, plateau, canyon, rain forest
Climate-related: weather, storm, rain, snow, cloud, fog
Other: country, city, town, village

C Group work

- Explain the task. Read the example conversation. Tell Ss that the words Mount (for names of mountains) and Lake come before the name (e.g., Mount Fuji, Lake Victoria). The other terms come after the name (e.g., Waikiki Beach, the Nile River, the Sahara Desert).
- Ss work in small groups to think of other examples. Ask groups to share their examples with the class.
- Point out that seas, rivers, and mountain ranges (but not most lakes) use the definite article (e.g., the Black Sea, the Rhine River, the Himalayas), but bring this up only if Ss ask you.

Possible answers

beach – Waikiki, Copacabana, Maho desert – Sahara, Atacama, Gobi forest – Black Forest, Sherwood Forest hill – Capitol Hill, Bunker Hill, Beverly Hills island – Puerto Rico, Java, Hokkaido lake – Michigan, Superior, Baikal mountain – Aconcagua, Everest, Kilimanjaro ocean – Atlantic, Indian, Arctic river – Amazon, Rhine, Mekong valley – Silicon, Loire, Death
volcano – Cotopaxi, Etna, Pinatubo waterfall – Angel Falls, Iguazu Falls, Niagara Falls

TIP
Create a Vocabulary Box. As a new word is taught, a S writes the word on a slip of paper and puts it in the box. Review words as a warm-up activity in future classes, or use them in games.

Option: Review vocabulary with Odd Man Out. List geography words, and ask Ss to find which word is different from the others (e.g., hill, mountain, volcano, ocean; ocean is the only water-related word).

Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a scene similar to the one in the picture.
Learning Objectives: use comparative and superlative adjectives in a conversation about geography

A [CD 3, Track 32]
- Set the scene. Claire is asking Steve some questions from a geography quiz. Point out that Steve might get some answers wrong.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to Steve’s answers and underline them in the conversation.

B [CD 3, Track 33]
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the correct answers to the geography quiz. (Answers: Australia, the Amazon, Malta, Hong Kong)
- Ask: “How many answers did Steve get right?”

Audio script
Claire So, let’s see how you did on this quiz. The first question: Which is larger, Mexico or Australia? You said . . .
Steve Australia.
Claire And you’re right! Both are large, but Australia is larger. Next: What’s the longest river in the world? You said the Nile. Sorry, that’s wrong. It’s the Amazon.
Steve Oh, of course. I knew that!
Claire This next question I didn’t know. Malta is more crowded than England.
Steve So I got it right? I remember hearing that Malta is the most crowded country in Europe.
Claire And finally, you said that Paris is the most expensive city.
Steve Yeah, and it is, right?
Claire Sorry, Steve. Actually, Hong Kong is the most expensive of the three!
Steve Really? Wow, I guess I didn’t do so well – two right, but two wrong!
Claire: No, come on. You did OK!

Answer
He got two questions right.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions using comparisons with adjectives

[CD 3, Track 34]

Comparative and superlative forms of adjectives
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation in Exercise 2. Ask Ss to identify the first two questions that compare things. (Answers: Which country is larger, Mexico or Australia? What’s the longest river in the world?)
- Ask Ss to make sentences comparing two things in their country (e.g., mountains, rivers, cities). If necessary, review comparative adjectives using Exercise 10 in Unit 3.
- Draw a chart on the board, like this:

1              2              3+ larger         larger         largest

- Explain the reasons for the numbers 1, 2, 3+ (e.g., 3+ is used when we are comparing three or more things).
- Elicit or explain the rules for forming the superlative:
  1. use the definite article (e.g., the largest country)
  2. when the adjective has only one syllable or two syllables ending in y, use: the + adjective + -est + noun (e.g., the longest river, the prettiest lake)
  3. when the adjective has two or more syllables, use: the most + adjective + noun (e.g., the most crowded country)
- Refer Ss to the appendix in the back of their book (page T–151 of the Teacher’s Edition) for spelling rules. Go over with the class.
- Give Ss a list of adjectives. Ss write comparative and superlative forms in the circles on the board.
- Point to the examples in the Grammar Focus box.

A
- Go over the task. Ss complete the sentences individually. Then they ask and answer the questions in pairs.
- Elicit the Ss’ answers.

Answers
1. Which country is smaller, Monaco or Vatican City?
2. Which waterfall is higher, Niagara Falls or Victoria Falls?
3. Which city is more crowded, Hong Kong or Cairo?
4. Which lake is larger, Lake Michigan or Lake Baikal?
5. Which is the highest: Mount Aconcagua, Mount Everest, or Mount Fuji?

In Unit 15, students discuss future activities and plans, and give messages. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss future activities and plans using the present continuous, be going to, and time expressions. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to give messages using tell and ask.

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss common excuses for declining invitations

- Books closed. Write the following excuses on the board. Ask Ss to guess what this Snapshot is about. Elicit or explain that these are all excuses.
  - I'm sorry, I can't.
  - Thanks, but I'm busy that night.

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- shoot for: (slang) to try to do something
- take a rain check: a saying when you can't accept an invitation and would like to do it at another time

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present continuous and be going to in a conversation about making plans

A [CD 3, Track 41]
- Ask Ss to look at the picture and invent a story about the two people. To guide Ss, ask: “Who are they? Where are they? What is their relationship? What is she asking him? What is he saying?”
- Set the scene. Alicia and Mike are college students. Alicia is asking Mike out on a date. Alicia is asking Mike to hang out.
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the board:
  1. What is Alicia inviting Mike to do?
  2. Why can't Mike go?
  3. When are they going to meet?
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. go to a photo exhibit 2. He's going to have dinner with his parents. 3. tomorrow at five)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.

B [CD 3, Track 42]
- Read the focus questions aloud. Ask Ss to guess the answers. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

<table>

<td>Oh, I have class till 6:30. But why don't I meet you for dinner later? Can you text me the address?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alicia</td>
<td>Sure.</td>

</table>

Answers

They are going to have dinner at the Korean House. They are going to meet their friend Garrett for dinner.

Option: Have a brief class discussion. Ask: “Do young people go on dates in your country? Where do people usually go on dates? What do friends do when they hang out?”
3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use the present continuous and be going to to discuss future activities and plans

[CD 3, Track 43]

Present continuous with future meaning
• Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 100. Write these sentences on the board:
  Alicia: What ______ you ______ tonight?
  Mike: ______ you ______ anything tomorrow?
• Call on Ss to fill in the blanks. (Answers: are/doing, Are/doing) Ask: “Do you recognize this tense?”
• Explain that earlier we used this tense to talk about what is happening right now. Now we are going to use it to talk about the future.
• Point to the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming the present continuous:
  Question: (Wh-question +) be + subject + verb + -ing?
  Statement: Subject + be + verb + -ing.

Be going to
• Explain that we can also use be going to + verb for future plans. Focus Ss’ attention on the second column in the Grammar Focus box.
• Draw a calendar for the week, and point to today’s date. Ask questions like these:
T: Are you going to do anything on Friday? (pointing to Friday)
S1: Yes. I’m going to study.
T: What about you, Pablo? What are you doing on Friday?
• Play the audio program. Ask Ss to repeat or mouth the words as they hear them.

A
• Explain the task. Model the first answer in both columns.
• Ss complete the conversations individually. Ask early finishers to write their answers on the board.

Answers
1. What ______ you ______ tonight? Would you like to go out?

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: give messages using tell and ask

[CD 3, Track 46]

Tell with statements
- Focus Ss’ attention on the “statement” part of the Grammar Focus box. Ask these four questions:
  1. “What is the message?” (I’m going to miss class tonight.)
  2. “Do we use tell or ask with statements?” (tell)
  3. “Does the message change when we use tell?” (no)
  4. “What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?” (Please tell X . . . /Could you tell him/her . . . ?/Would you tell him/her . . . ?)
- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a statement: Tell + person + (that) + the statement.

Ask with requests
- Repeat the above steps for requests with the “request” part of the Grammar Focus box.
  1. “What is the message?” (Could she take a picture of the board?)
  2. “Do we use tell or ask with requests?” (ask)
  3. “Does the message change when we use ask?” (no, but we use to)
  4. “What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?” (Please ask X . . . /Could you ask him/her . . . ?/Would you ask him/her . . . ?)
- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a request: Ask + person + to + the request.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 102. Ask: “What structures does Jake use when he gives his two messages?” (Answers: Could you tell Mr. Eaton that . . . ? Could you ask Brittney to . . . ?)
- Use the audio program to present the language.

Answers

1. Please tell Haru that the barbecue is on Saturday.
2. Could you ask Caitlin to call me at 4:00?
3. Could you tell Mia that the dance performance is tonight?
4. Would you tell Casey that the picnic is in the park?
5. Would you ask Maika to meet me at the stadium?
6. Please ask Garrett to bring the tickets to the rock concert.

Pair work
- Explain the task and model the example conversation.
- Have pairs of students sit back to back to complete the task.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write texts with requests

A Pair work
- Explain the task. Ask Ss to read the example messages silently. Using the example messages, demonstrate writing “texts” on a piece of paper with a S.

TIP
For timed activities such as this one, tell Ss to write quickly and not worry about correcting their text.

B Class activity
- Explain the task and read the example dialogue with a S.
- Ss exchange their notes with a partner. Then everyone gets up to deliver each message.
- Option: Ss can use the messages on their phones to tell the other Ss the message.
Learning Objective: sound more natural using could you and would you in reduced forms in questions

A [CD 3, Track 47]
- Play the audio program. Model the consonant sounds d + y in could you and would you. Ss repeat.
- Call on different Ss to try the reductions.

B Pair work
- Read out the four questions for the class. Ask Ss to repeat.
- For a new way to practice this Pronunciation, try Walking Stress – download it from the website.

Learning Objective: listen for details in messages

[CD 3, Track 48]
- Explain the task. Read the questions and point out the different parts of the messages.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and write down the messages. Then Ss compare answers with a partner.
- Play the audio program again. Pause after every few lines to give Ss time to complete the messages.

Audio script

1.
Fatima Hi, John. Where are you? Class is starting soon!
John I know. I missed the bus, so I’m going to be late.
Fatima But we’re giving our class presentation today.
John Don’t worry! Would you tell the teacher that I’m going to be late? We can do our presentation at the end of class.
Fatima OK, but hurry up!

William Hi, Samantha.
Samantha Hi, William. Martin asked me to call him today, but he’s not answering his phone. Is he in the office?
William Yes, but he’s in an important meeting.
Samantha Oh, . . . Well, when he’s free, would you ask him to call me?
William Yes, of course.
Samantha Thank you, William.

3.
Amanda Hi, Ryan. Where are you?
Ryan Hi, Amanda. We’re on Main Street. We just passed the high school.
Amanda The high school? Oh, you’ve gone too far.
Ryan Sorry. Jennifer’s never driven to your house before.
Amanda No problem. Could you tell her to turn around and turn left on Summer Street?
Ryan OK, Amanda, no problem. See you soon.

4.
Brandon Hi, Brittany. What’s up?
Brittany Hi, Brandon. I’m calling to see if you and Emily would like to come to our house for dinner tomorrow night.
Brandon Thanks! I’d love to go, but Emily might be working late tomorrow.
Brittany Well, when you see her, could you tell her that I invited you both?
Brandon Sure. I hope we can come.

Role Play

Learning Objective: leave and take messages

- Divide the class into pairs and assign A/B roles. Explain the roles and go over the A/B cues. Elicit or explain that a motherboard is the main part that makes a computer function.
- Model the role play with a S. Have Ss sit back to back. Change roles if necessary.
- Option: Before starting the activity, tell Ss to reread the Conversation on page 102. Or Ss can listen again to the audio program in Exercise 11 to review phone language. Ask Students A to find expressions callers use and Students B to find expressions receivers use.

- Ss do the first role play, sitting back to back. Provide feedback after they finish.
- Explain the second role play and go over the A/B cues. Pairs change roles and do the new role play.

TIP
To maintain interest, it’s best to ask only one pair to demonstrate the role play to the class.
Learning Objectives: develop skills in summarizing; read for specific information in an article about cell phone accidents

A
- Books closed. To set the scene, ask Ss to brainstorm mistakes that cell phone users make while using their phones (e.g., They bump into people. They talk too loudly about personal things.).
- Books open. Call on a S to read the title aloud.
- Read the focus question. Tell Ss to read the cell phone article quickly to find the answer to the question. (Answer: The map app on the phone led to the wrong address.)

B
- Explain the task. Ss read the article silently. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they don’t know.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- embarrassing: something that makes you feel ashamed or shy
- accident: something bad that happens (not on purpose)
- security camera: a camera, often hidden, that is meant to keep people safe
- capture: get
- throw: (irr., past tense threw) to push something out of your hand and through the air
- track: the metal rails a train or subway moves along
- lamppost: a tall post with a light on top to light roads and sidewalks
- reaction: how you respond to something that has happened

For a new way to teach the vocabulary in this Reading, try Vocabulary Mingle – download it from the website.

- Ss choose the best summary. Then go over the answer with the class. (Answer: 2)

C
- Explain the task. Ss check (✓) the facts that are in the article.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers with a partner.
- Go over answers with the class.

In Unit 16, students describe life changes and describe plans for the future. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe changes in their lives using the comparative and present, past, and present perfect tenses. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe plans for the future using verb + infinitive.

16 How have you changed?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–5

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss life-changing experiences in one's life

- Books closed. Explain that this unit is about important changes in our lives.
- Ss brainstorm things that change our lives (e.g., get married, have a child, change schools). Help with vocabulary as needed.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with those in the Snapshot.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- driver's license: a document that proves you are legally allowed to drive a car
- graduate: complete your studies
- abroad: to a foreign country
- retire: to stop working, usually because one is old

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the comparative and present, past, and present perfect tenses in a conversation about changes in one's life

A [CD 3, Track 49]

- Set the scene. Two old friends run into each other and “catch up” on changes in their lives.
- Books closed. Play the audio program. Ask: “Has Thomas's life changed for the better or for the worse?” (Answer: for the better)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
  - True or false?
  1. Thomas is still in school.
  2. His hair is longer than before.
  3. He’s in a band.
- Play the audio program again. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. false 2. true 3. false) For the false ones, ask Ss what really happened. (Answers: He finished school. He's in a play.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary
- business administration: the study of how to run a business
- drama: plays and acting
- contacts: short for contact lenses

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It With Feeling! – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 50]

- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen to find out how Hayden has changed.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Thomas So tell me, Hayden, what else have you been up to?
Hayden Well, let’s see. I’ve just bought an apartment on Market Street, near the park. It’s less noisy than downtown.
Thomas Really? That’s a very nice area. So you don’t live with your sister anymore?
Hayden Oh, yes, I still do. I’m going to move into my new place in two months.
Thomas Are you going to live alone?
Hayden No, actually, I got engaged to Paul. We’re going to get married in July.
Thomas Wow! That’s great news! Congratulations!

Answers

Hayden bought an apartment and got engaged. She’s going to get married in July.

Cycle 2, Exercises 6–12

6 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use verb + infinitive in a conversation about planning for the future

A [CD 3, Track 53]

• Have Ss cover the text. Use the picture to set the scene. Ask: “What’s happening? What do you think they are discussing?” Elicit ideas.
• Write this chart on the board (without the answers). Ask Ss to listen for three future plans for each person. Future plans

Robin: play the guitar, take guitar lessons, learn to play Latin music
Matt: learn how to dance salsa, take a trip to Puerto Rico, get a new job
• Play the audio program. Ss write their answers. Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class. Have Ss fill in the chart on the board.
• Have Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently.
• Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. A resolution is something a person “resolves” or intends to do in the future. Resolutions are often made for the new year.
• Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 54]

• Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out the answers to the focus questions.

7 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use verb + infinitive to ask and answer questions about plans for the future

[CD 3, Track 55]
- Books closed. Write these sentences on the board:
  Robin: I’d ________ learn how to play the guitar.
  Robin: I ________ take lessons.
  Matt: I’d ________ learn how to dance.
  Matt: I ________ get a new job soon.
- Books open. Focus Ss’ attention on the Conversation on page 108. Call on Ss to find the answers and to fill in the blanks on the board. (Answers: love to, plan to, like to, hope to)
- Ask Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box.
- Ask: “What do these structures have in common? What other structures follow this pattern?” (Answers: They are verb + infinitive; going to, want to)
- Play the audio program. Then have Ss make sentences of their own (e.g., I don’t plan to get married this year).
- For more practice with verb + infinitive, play Line Up! – download it from the website. Ss line up according to the age when they hope to marry, how many children they hope to have, etc.

A
- Explain the task. Tell Ss to write true information about themselves. Encourage Ss to use each verb from the Grammar Focus box at least once.
- Ss work individually to complete the sentences. Remind Ss to add two more statements for numbers 9 and 10. Go around the class and give help. (Note: Don’t check Ss’ answers until the end of part B.)

B Pair work
- Ss work in pairs to discuss their responses. Tell pairs to check (√) the statements on their lists that are the same and to put an X next to the ones that are different.
- Elicit some “same” and “different” responses from pairs.

C Group work
- Explain the task. Call on Ss to read the questions. Check for correct intonation.
- Ss work in small groups. They take turns asking and answering the questions. Tell Ss to ask the questions in any order they want. Also encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions and to respond to group members’ plans.
- Option: Encourage Ss to use all of the Wh-words as follow-up questions at least once: Why, Where, When, Who, and How.

8 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: recognize the differences in pronunciation in words spelled with o

A [CD 3, Track 56]
- Explain that words spelled with o are pronounced in different ways in English. Point out the two examples in the book.
- Play the audio program and let Ss listen to the two sounds and practice.
- Elicit more words that contain the two sounds (e.g., grow, oh, son, from).
- Option: If Ss are having problems, ask them to find words spelled with o in the unit. Say the words, and ask Ss which have the /oʊ/ sound, which have the /ʌ/ sound, and which have some other sound.
- For more practice with this Pronunciation, play Bingo – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 57]
- Explain the task. Model the first word.
- Play the audio program. Ss check (√) the sound they hear.
- Option: Ss first check (√) the sound they think is represented by the letter o. Then play the audio program. Ss check if their guesses were right or wrong.
- Check Ss’ answers on the board.

Answers
/oo/  both cold home over
/ʌ/  come honey money mother

Option: Ss work in pairs. They write a conversation with at least five words from part A or B. Then Ss practice the conversation.

TIP
Each week, select a “sound of the week” and focus specifically on that (or, in this case, the two sounds).
10 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: describe plans about a future trip

A Group work
- Explain the task. Groups make plans to take an English course abroad. The whole group has to agree on the destination. Go over the details they need to think about (e.g., place, time, length, housing, coursework, tourist places to visit). Model the conversation with three Ss.
- Encourage Ss to use a variety of verb + infinitive forms.
- Ss work in small groups to discuss their plans. Set a time limit of about ten minutes. Tell groups to choose one person to take notes.

B Class activity
- Explain the task.
- Groups present their plans to the class. Encourage the whole class to try to agree on one of the trips.

11 WRITING

Learning Objective: write about plans for a class trip abroad

A Group work
- Explain the task. Ask Ss to read the example plan silently. Ss write a similar plan, based on their discussion in Exercise 10.
- Ss form the same small groups as in Exercise 10. They write their plan for an English course abroad. Go around the groups and give help as needed. Each S should write their group’s plan.

B Pair work
- Ss pair up with a S from another group and read each other’s trip ideas.
- Pairs discuss how their trips are similar.
Learning Objectives: make inferences about audience; read for specific information in an article about a person's goals

A
- Go over the question. Ask Ss to read the article to find out what it is about.
- Ss read the article individually. Then have Ss tell you what the article was generally about.

Answer
- An important invention

B
- Explain the task. Ss read the article silently. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they don't know.
- Ask: "Who do you think the article was written for?" Go over the answer with the class.

Answer
- People who care about the environment

- Elicit or explain any remaining new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

- century: 100 years
- extraordinary: very special or unusual
- donate: to give money, goods, or services freely, without being paid

C
- Read aloud the questions in part C. Then ask Ss to look for the answers. (Encourage Ss to look for the information quickly, without reading the whole article again.) Give Ss a time limit.
- Ss compare answers in pairs or groups. Have the Ss who finish first write their responses on the board.

Answers
1. He was on vacation in Greece.
2. He left school to start The Ocean Cleanup.
3. It takes centuries to break down.
4. He asked people to donate money online.
5. He hopes the oceans will be clean in 20 or 30 years.

D Group work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to discuss a personal goal that they’ve achieved or a goal that someone else has achieved. Have a few Ss share their goals with the class.

End of Cycle 2
See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.
SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one’s learning; identify areas that need improvement

• Ask: “What did you learn in Units 15 and 16?” Elicit Ss’ answers.
• Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.

Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
2. Ask Ss: “What do you need to practice?” Then assign exercises based on their answers.
3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to discuss future plans

A Group work
• Explain the task. Ss work in groups of four. Each S writes the names of the other three Ss in the first column. Ss then ask each other about their weekend plans. Encourage them to ask follow-up questions to find out details. Model the example with two Ss.

B Group work
• Explain the task. Ss discuss the questions in groups and share their results with the class.

2 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to make and accept or decline invitations

• Elicit different ways to make invitations, accept invitations, refuse invitations, and make excuses. Write them on the board.
• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A invites Student B to an event from Exercise 1. Student B accepts or refuses.

• Model the role play with a S.
• Ss complete the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again. Go around the class and give help as needed.
LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to take phone messages

[CD 3, Track 58]

1. Set the scene and explain the task. Ss will hear two telephone calls. They listen and write the name of the person the message is for, the caller, and the message.
2. Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the messages.

Audio script

1. Mr. Daniels Hello?
   Alyssa Hi. Mr. Daniels. This is Alyssa Jenkins. Is Matthew there? I’ve tried calling his cell, but he’s not answering.
   Mr. Daniels I’m sorry, Alyssa. Matthew isn’t here. May I take a message?
   Alyssa Oh, um. Sure. Would you tell him to meet me at the theater at 7:00? The play starts at 7:30.
   Mr. Daniels OK, let me just write this down. So, you want him to meet you at the theater at 7:00, right?
   Alyssa That’s right.
   Mr. Daniels And the play is at 7:30, right?
   Alyssa Yes, that’s right. Thanks so much.
   Mr. Daniels No problem. Have a good time!

2. Man Hello.
   Kayla Hi. Jacob?
   Man No, sorry. Jacob isn’t here right now. Can I take a message?
   Kayla Yes, thanks. Do you have a pen?
   Man Yeah. Go ahead.
   Kayla OK. This is Kayla. Could you tell him that I’m still at the barbecue? Please ask him to pick me up here. Not at home.
   Man OK. So, you’re still at the barbecue, right?
   Kayla Yes, that’s right.
   Man And he should pick you up there. Not at home. Right?
   Kayla That’s right. Thanks.
   Man No problem.

- Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

1. Message for: Matthew
   Caller: Alyssa
   Message: Meet her at theater at 7:00. The play is at 7:30.

2. Message for: Jacob
   Caller: Kayla
   Message: Pick her up at barbecue, not at home.

SURVEY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one’s ability to ask and answer questions about changes in one’s life

A Class activity

- Explain the task and go over the chart. Explain any new vocabulary. Then elicit how to make questions with the phrases in the chart (e.g., Do you not wear glasses anymore?).

B Class activity

- Ss compare their information as a class. Ask: “Who has changed the most?”

SPEAKING

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one’s ability to set goals; demonstrate one’s ability to decide how best to accomplish goals

- Ss check (✓) the goals they want to accomplish individually. Then they add two more goals.

WHAT’S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one’s learning

- Focus Ss’ attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: “How well can you do these things now?”

- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: “What did you underline? How can you review it?”

- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss’ answers.
INTERCHANGE 1

Learning Objective: interview classmates to learn more about their backgrounds

A Class activity
- As a warm-up, ask a S: “What’s your name? What city are you from?”
- Go over the questions in the chart. Help Ss with vocabulary and pronunciation. If necessary, review hobbies and the months of the year.
- Explain the task. Model the questions with a S. Point out that Ss will write one more question and then interview three classmates.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed. Write down any grammar or vocabulary errors and go over them after Ss complete the task.

B Group work
- Explain the task. Go over the questions and review the vocabulary if needed. Ask, “Who has a long first name?” Have a S answer.
- Ss discuss the questions as a group.
- Option: Elicit interesting information that Ss found out about their classmates.
INTERCHANGE 2 What we have in common

A CLASS ACTIVITY Add one more question to the chart. Answer these questions about yourself. Then interview two classmates. Write their names and the times they do each thing.

B PAIR WORK: Whose schedule is similar to yours? Tell your partner.

A: Amir and I have similar schedules. We both get up at 7:00 and have breakfast at 7:30.

B: I leave for work at 7:30, but Nikki leaves for school at . . .

Useful expressions

- We both . . . at . . .
- We . . . at different times.
- My schedule is different from my two classmates’ schedules.

---

INTERCHANGE 2 Learning Objective: survey classmates to learn more about their routines

A Class activity

- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures at the bottom of the page. Ask: “What does the man do every day? What time does he do each thing?”

- Go over any new vocabulary in the list. Teach or review how to write and say times.

- Explain the first part of the task. Ask Ss: “What time do you get up during the week?” Ss complete the first line in the Me column. Then they complete the rest of the column individually. Allow about three minutes. Go around the class and give help as needed.

- Explain the rest of the task. Ss go around the class and interview two classmates. They write each classmate’s name at the top of the column and ask the questions in the chart. They write a time for each response.

- Model the task with a S.

- Set a time limit of about 15 minutes. Then Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed. Write down any errors you hear for Ss to correct later.

---

TIP

At beginning levels, sometimes instructions are difficult to understand. It is much more effective to model the task than to explain it.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Go over the useful expressions and model the example conversation with a S.

- Ss complete the task in pairs. Encourage them to explain why their schedules are similar.

- Elicit answers from the class.
INTERCHANGE 3

Learning Objective: talk more fluently when asking about prices of items for sale

A
- Point out the title. Explain that a flea market is a place where people sell used things. Sellers have an “asking price,” but people bargain.
- Ask: “Are there flea markets in your country? Do people bargain for better prices?” Encourage discussion.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the pictures on both pages. Ask: “What do you see here? What are these people doing?”
- Divide the Ss into pairs and assign pages A and B. Explain the task.
- Focus Ss’ attention on the tablet. Ask: “What is a good price for a used tablet?” Tell Ss with page A to choose an “asking price” and write it down. Then focus Ss’ attention on the mugs. Ask: “What is a good price for mugs?” Tell Ss with page B to choose an “asking price” and write it down.
- Ss work individually to make up prices for the remaining items.

TIP
If Ss have difficulty with a specific task, try a different grouping for the task. For example, have them work in small groups instead of pairs.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Students A and B take turns as buyer and seller. The buyers choose three things they want to buy from their partner’s page. Buyers decide on a good price for each thing.
- Model the example conversation with a few Ss, showing that A is the buyer and B is the seller. Remind the class to vary the conversation and to bargain.
- Give Ss a time limit of about ten minutes. Explain that partners need to take turns starting the conversation so that each S is both buyer and seller.
- Continue until both partners buy and sell at least three things. Tell the Ss to write down the prices they bought the things for.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.
STUDENT A AND B

PAIR WORK Now choose three things you want to buy. Get the best price for each one.

A: How much is the tablet computer?
B: It’s only $70.
A: Wow! That’s expensive!
B: Well, how about $35?
A: No. That’s still too much. I’ll give you $30 for it.
B:Sold! It’s yours.

GROUP WORK Compare your earnings in groups. Who made the most money at the flea market?

STUDENTS B

You want to sell these things. Write your “asking price” for each item.

MUGS
asking price: __________
sold for: __________

ELECTRIC GUITAR
asking price: __________
sold for: __________

PRINTER
asking price: __________
sold for: __________

TREADMILL
asking price: __________
sold for: __________

Option: Ask a pair of Ss to perform their role play for the class. Alternatively, Ss can change partners and try the activity again.

Option: Ss make a list of six to eight things to sell at a flea market. They can also bring in two or three things and role-play a sale at a flea market.

Group work

Ss look at the “sold for” part of their page and add up the amount of money they made individually.

Ss work in groups to take turns comparing who made the most money at the flea market. Go around the room and encourage Ss to talk about their sales with useful expressions from Unit 3.

Option: Elicit the best bargains Ss got.
Are you free this weekend?

A

- Explain the task. Ss read the directions. Ss write three things they need to do and three things they want to do this weekend and the days and times. Model an example for need to and want to for the class.
- Ss complete the task individually.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the example with a S. Review invitations and polite refusals if necessary. Point out that Ss should give a reason if they decline an invitation.
- Ss work in pairs to agree on two activities to do together.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Pairs work with another pair to take turns making and responding to invitations.
- Go around the room and encourage Ss to respond politely.

D Class work

- Explain the task. Read the example. Groups share their choices with the class.
- Option: Elicit interesting refusals that Ss made.
CLASS ACTIVITY Go around the class telling your classmates three activities that members of your family are doing these days. Two activities have to be true, but one needs to be false! Can your classmates guess which activity is false with only two questions?

A: My brother is working in Berlin and his wife is studying German there. My niece is learning three languages at school: German, English, and Spanish.
B: Is your brother really working in Berlin?
A: Yes, he is.
B: Is your niece really learning Spanish?
A: No, she’s not! She’s learning German and English, but she isn’t learning Spanish.
A Class activity

- Focus Ss’ attention on the chart. Read through the list of items. Explain any unfamiliar vocabulary.
- Have Ss add two of their own ideas to the chart.
- Explain the task. Ss ask each other who does these activities, how often they do them, and how well they do them. Point out that Ss must try to find one person who does each thing. Also, they cannot use the same name twice.
- Model the task with a S at the front of the class, using the example conversation.
- Set a time limit of 10 to 15 minutes. Ss go around the room and complete the activity.

B Group work

- Focus Ss’ attention on the picture. Ask: “What is a fundraiser?” Elicit ideas. If needed, explain that it is an event where people raise money to get something or to benefit a charity or other organization. Sometimes people make things or perform services to get the money.
- Explain the task. Tell Ss to imagine the class is participating in a fundraiser. Ss choose three people from the class to help raise money at the fundraiser. Ask: “What will each person do for the fundraiser? Why?”
- Model the conversation with two Ss. Then Ss complete the task in small groups.
- Ask the groups to share and explain their choices with the class. Have the class agree on the three people.
Learning Objective: speak more fluently about past events using the simple past

Group work

- Focus Ss’ attention on the board game and read the instructions. Show Ss how to write their initials on small pieces of paper and use them as markers.
- Option: Ss can use other small items as markers (e.g., pen caps or erasers).
- Show Ss how to toss a coin. Point out which side is face up and which side is face down.
- Have different Ss read the questions in each space. Explain that a “free question” can be any question another player wants to ask you. Remind Ss they can make up an answer if they don’t want to answer truthfully.
- Then ask two Ss to model the example conversation. Point out that Ss should ask follow-up questions.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

TIP

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

- Ss play the game in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.
- Option: Ask Ss to share any interesting information they learned about their classmates.
Learning Objective: describe places in a neighborhood with there is/there are and quantifiers

Class activity

- Explain that Ss will play a guessing game. Read the locations. Elicit or explain any location meanings.
- Read the instructions. Put Ss into two teams, A and B. Explain that each team will choose a location and keep it secret for now.
- Explain that one S from each team will go to the front of the class. Those two Ss will guess the other team's location.
- Teams then show the opposite team the location but keep it secret from that team’s guesser. Teams take turns giving clues to the other team’s guesser. Point out that Ss will use there is/there are and quantifiers. Model an example: “There are a lot of people waiting at this place,” is one clue, and “There are a lot of planes.” is a second clue.
- Explain that teams can give up to ten clues. The teams try to guess the location in as few guesses as possible. Each clue is worth one point. Teams don’t want many points.
- Have three Ss model the example conversation at the bottom of the page.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

TIP

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

- Put the class into two teams to play. Listen to make sure that Ss use there is/there are + quantifiers. Give help as needed.
STUDENT A
A PAIR WORK How many differences can you find between your picture here and your partner's picture? Ask questions like these to find the differences.
- How many people are standing / sitting / wearing . . . / holding a drink? Who?
- What color is . . . 's T-shirt / sweater / hair?
- Does . . . wear glasses / have a beard / have long hair?
- What does . . . look like?

INTERCHANGE 9A

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about people's appearance

A Pair work
- Ss work in pairs. One S looks at Interchange 9A and the other S looks at Interchange 9B.
- Explain the task. Both Ss have pictures of a party, but there are some differences in the pictures. Ss ask each other questions to find the differences without looking at their partner’s picture.
- Ask different Ss to read the questions at the top of the page. Point out that Ss can use these questions to find the differences.

TIP
With information gap activities, tell Ss to sit across from their partners and put a textbook between them. That way, they can hear each other but not see each other's pictures.

B Class activity
- Tell pairs to look over their answers (i.e., the differences between the two pictures) and to choose one to write on the board. Encourage them to come to the board quickly by making it a rule that no answer can be written twice.
- To check the answers written on the board, ask the pair who wrote an answer to read it aloud for the class. Then find out if other Ss agree. If they do agree, go on to the next answer until all of them have been checked. If Ss don’t agree, ask the class to look at both pictures again to check it.

STUDENT B

11. In Picture 1, Elliott is wearing a green shirt and long pants. In Picture 2, he's wearing a gray shirt and shorts.

“In picture 1, Danu’s shirt is ... In picture 2, it’s ...”
INTERCHANGE 10 | Fun survey

A Pair work
- How much fun does your partner have? Interview him or her.

Write the number of points using this scale.

- never = 1 point
- 1–3 times = 2 points
- 4–7 times = 3 points
- 8 or more times = 4 points

B Group work
- Add up your partner’s points. Tell the group how much fun your partner has and why.

10–19 = You don’t have enough fun. You should try to do things you enjoy more often! Stop and smell the roses!

20–29 = You have fun sometimes, but you need to do it more often. Continue to take time to do the things that you like.

30–40 = You know how to have fun! You know how to have a good time and enjoy life. Keep it up!

C Class activity
- Do you think your partner needs to have more fun? In what way?

“Ellen has fun sometimes. She watches her favorite TV show once a week and takes a vacation twice a year. But she never reads anything she really likes — only the things she has to read for school.”

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about one’s lifestyle

A Pair work
- Focus Ss’ attention on the survey. Ask a few Ss to say what they think is fun and how many times they’ve done something fun in the last week.
- Explain the task. Then Ss read the questions silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

B Group work
- Explain the task and demonstrate how to add up the points. Then ask a few Ss to read the results chart and the example reading. Point out that Ss will use the results chart to create their own explanation about how much fun their partner has.
- Ss use their surveys to make notes about how much fun their partner has.
- In groups, Ss take turns talking about how much fun their partner has.

C Class activity
- Explain the task and read the example.
- Ask the class: “Who knows how to have fun? Why? Who needs to have more fun? In what way?” Elicit Ss’ answers.

GROUP WORK

GROUP WORK Add up your partner’s points. Tell the group how much fun your partner has and why.

10–19 = You don’t have enough fun. You should try to do things you enjoy more often! Stop and smell the roses!

20–29 = You have fun sometimes, but you need to do it more often. Continue to take time to do the things that you like.

30–40 = You know how to have fun! You know how to have a good time and enjoy life. Keep it up!

“Ellen has fun sometimes. She watches her favorite TV show once a week and takes a vacation twice a year. But she never reads anything she really likes — only the things she has to read for school.”

CLASS ACTIVITY Do you think your partner needs to have more fun? In what way?

“I think Ellen needs to have more fun in her life. She needs to spend more time doing things she likes. And she needs to eat her favorite foods more often. She also…”

Model the activity by asking a S the first interview question. Explain that the S should answer with the number of times he or she has done the thing asked about.

Show how to use the chart at the top to calculate the number of times into points. Based on Ss’ responses, show where to write the number of points.

Ss complete the survey in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Option: To make Ss listen more carefully, tell them to ask the questions in a different order.
Welcome to our city!

A Pair work

Ask: "What are some fun and exciting places and things for tourists to do in your city?" Elicit Ss’ answers.

B Class activity

Read your guide to the class. Ask follow-up questions to learn more.

What is the first place you should visit?
What is an exciting place to have fun on a Saturday night?
What is a relaxing place to visit on a Sunday morning?
What is a quiet place to study or do some work?
What is a really beautiful area that you shouldn’t miss?
What is a dangerous area that you should avoid?
What places are usually too crowded?
Where can you exercise outdoors?
What fun things can you do for free?
Where’s a popular place to meet?

C Class activity

Ask groups to share their favorite guides and give examples of details they found interesting. Have the class choose their favorite guides overall.
INTERCHANGE 12: What should I do?

A Group work

1. Write your initials on small pieces of paper. These are your game pieces.
2. Take turns by tossing a coin. If the coin lands face up, move two spaces. If the coin lands face down, move one space.
3. When you land on a space, ask two others in your group for advice.
4. The first person to cross the finish line is the winner.

A: I have the hiccups, Hiroto. What should I do?
B: Well, it’s sometimes useful to hold your breath.
A: Thanks. What about you, Erica? What’s your advice?
C: You should drink some water. That always works for me.

B Class activity

Read the question. Elicit information from each group. Encourage them to give examples.

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about health problems and medical advice

TIP

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

A Group work

- Focus Ss’ attention on the board game and read the instructions. Show Ss how to write their initials on small pieces of paper and use them as markers.
- Option: Ss can use other small items as markers (e.g., pen caps or erasers).
- Show Ss how to toss a coin. Point out which side is face up and which side is face down.
- Have different Ss read the problems in each space. Elicit or explain any vocabulary. Then ask three Ss to model the example conversation.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

B Class activity

- Ss play the game in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to use the expressions in the useful expressions box.

---

Useful expressions

- You should . . .
- You could . . .
- It’s a good idea to . . .
- It’s important to . . .
- I think it’s useful to . . .
Planning a food festival

A Pair work
- Set the scene and explain the task. Explain that a food truck usually has a theme or specific type of food it sells, such as only foods made with bacon, or a combination of Indian curry and tacos, or savory cupcakes. They usually offer fewer dishes than a regular restaurant menu.
- Ask the class about any food trucks they have seen or eaten from. Elicit possible themes and foods for a food truck from the class. Encourage Ss to be creative and to think of their favorite foods.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Ss choose a name for their food truck and write it at the top of the menu. To help Ss think of ideas, ask these questions: “What kind of food truck is it? What’s special about it?” Then they complete the menu.
- Go around the class and give help with vocabulary, spelling, or prices.

B Group work
- Read the instructions and explain the task. Pairs trade menus with another pair and order food and drinks from each other’s menu.
- Then pairs make suggestions about the other pair’s menu. Tell Ss they may want to make suggestions about the prices, the most interesting dish, the healthiest dish, and the name of the food truck.
- Elicit answers from the class. Encourage Ss to explain their reasons.
Learning Objective: speak more fluently about general knowledge facts

A Pair work
- Write these subjects on the board: biology, geography, science, history, chemistry, foreign languages
- As a warm-up, ask: “Do you watch quiz shows on TV? How well would you do with these subjects?” Encourage discussion.

B Pair work
- Explain the task. Model the first question with its three choices. Point out the photos that refer to the question.
- Call on Ss to read through the list of questions and their choices. (It’s best not to explain new words at this time as this might give away the answer.)
- Model this possible conversation with a S:

  T: Look at question 1. Which place is the wettest: Kaua‘i, Hawai‘i; Manaus, Brazil; or Emei Shan, China?
  S: I think Kaua‘i, Hawai‘i, is the wettest.

C Class activity
- Explain the task. Pairs ask the class their two questions. If the class can’t answer a question, the pair gets a point.
- Have pairs report their total points at the end.

---

World Knowledge Quiz

1. Which place is the wettest?
   - Kaua‘i, Hawai‘i

T-129
INTERCHANGE 15

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about weekend plans

Class activity
- As a warm-up, ask: “What are you doing this weekend?”
- Option: Let the class ask you about your weekend plans.
- Ask Ss to look at the items in the chart. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Call on Ss to form the questions from the phrases (e.g., Are you going to go to a party this weekend?).
- Model by asking different Ss: “Are you going to go out of town this weekend?” When a S says “no,” go on to the next person until you find someone who says “yes.” Write that person’s name in the chart, and ask at least two follow-up questions. Write the details in the Notes column.
- Ask two Ss to model the conversation.
- Model how to react to hearing about someone’s plans (e.g., Really? That sounds great! Wow! That sounds like fun!). Ss practice the expressions.
- Ss move around the class to do the activity.

TIP
It's best not to interrupt Ss during a fluency exercise. For this type of activity, communication of real information is more important than grammatical or lexical accuracy.
